CHAPTER OVERVIEW

This chapter explains the provisions contained in Chapter IV (comprising Section 43 to 72) of the Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as the Act or this Act) regarding the 'Share Capital and Debentures', along with relevant procedural aspects explained in the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014.

1. INTRODUCTION

Chapter IV	Consists of sections 43 to 72 as well as the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014.

Finance, the lifeblood for running the affairs of a company, can be raised, inter-alia, by issuing shares and debentures. In fact, shares and debentures are financial instruments which help in arranging funds for the company. Under the Companies Act, 2013, they are jointly referred to as "securities".

Shares represent ownership interest in a company with entrepreneurial risks and rewards whereas debentures depict lenders' interest in the company with limited risks and returns.

Sometimes, after the issue of capital, a company may either alter or reduce the share capital depending upon the exigencies of the situation. The company has to follow the requisite provisions for alteration or reduction of share capital.

Both the shares and debentures are presented in the Balance Sheet on the liabilities side of the issuer company and on the assets side of the investor and lender respectively.

Legal provisions relating to these instruments are covered under Chapter IV of the Companies Act, 2013 (comprising sections 43 to 72) and the Companies (Share Capital & Debentures) Rules, 2014 as amended from time to time along with endorsement in the company formation documents or approved at the suitable company forum, wherever necessary.

2. SHARE CAPITAL-TYPES

WHAT ARE SHARE AND STOCK?

Share – Definition & Description

Section 2(84) of the Act defines share as a share in the share capital of a company and includes stock.

Capital of a company is termed as share capital, which is divided into units, having a certain face value. Each such unit is termed as share.

New London & Brazilian Bank v. Brockle Bank¹

A share is not a sum of money..., but is an interest measured in a sum of money, and made up of various rights, contained in the contract, including the right to a sum of money of a more or less amount.

Around two decade later, J. Farwell in landmark case of Borland's Trustee v. Steel Brothers & Co Ltd² place his trust in the opinion stated above, and observe that share is the interest of a shareholder in the company measured by a sum of money, for the purpose of liability in the first place and of interest in the second, and also consists of a series of mutual covenants entered into by all the shareholders inter se in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act and the Articles of Association.

Example 1 - Sun Bakers Limited has authorised share capital of ₹ 50 lakh. The face value of each unit of capital or 'share' is ₹ 10. In this case, it can be said that the company has 5 lakh shares of ₹ 10 each. When these shares (either in part or whole) are allotted to various persons, they, on the date of allotment, become shareholders of the company.

Note: Company limited by share or those which having share capital has to quote in their memorandum - The share capital of the capital is _ _ _ _ rupees, divided into _ _ _ _ shares of _ _ rupees each.

Stock - Description

The definition of 'share' states that the term 'share' includes 'stock'. If a company undertakes to aggregate the fully paid up shares of various members as per their requests and merge those shares into one fund, then such fund is called 'stock'. In more simple words we can say that 'stock' is a collection or bundle of fully paid-up shares.

Section 61 (1) (c) of the Act, empower a limited company having a share capital to convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination.

Students are advised to take note of - What make stock different?

Stock is stated in lump sum whereas a 'share' being the smallest unit is having face value. Originally shares are issued to the shareholders while in case of stock, the fully paid-up shares of the members are converted into 'stock' afterwards. Thus, 'stock' is not issued originally but is obtained by conversion of fully paid-up shares.

KINDS OF SHARE CAPITAL [SECTION 43]

Broadly, there are two kinds of share capital of a company limited by shares; Equity share capital and Preference share capital. Equity Share capital can be further segregated into two categories based upon rights. Following diagram depicts kinds of share capital;

Preference Share Capital [explanation (ii) to section 43]

Preference share capital is that part of issued share capital of any company limited by shares which carries or would carry a preferential right in respect to:

- a. Payment of dividend, may be absolute amount or amount calculated at fixed rate (which may either be free of or subject to income-tax); and
- b. Repayment of capital, in the case of winding up or repayment of capital. This preference exists only up to amount paid up or deemed to have been paid up on the shares, whether or not, there is a preferential right to the payment of any fixed premium or premium on any fixed scale, specified in the memorandum or articles of the company, unless there is an agreement in contrary to this.

Example 2 – Ind-swift Pharma Labs Limited and Panacea Biotec Limited issued preference share.

Ind-swift Pharma provides that the preferential dividend may be a fixed amount say ₹ 5,00,000 in one year, payable to preference shareholders before anything is paid to the ordinary shareholders.

Whereas the Panacea Biotec provides that the amount payable as preferential dividend may be calculated at a fixed rate @ 8 percent of the nominal value of each share.

Note:

1. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the rights of the preference shareholders who are entitled to participate in the proceeds of winding up before the commencement of this Act.

2. Preference shareholders may also participate in equity pool post the preferential entitlements.

But to find out their rights of participation we must look within the four corners of the articles of association and the terms of the issue.

If the right to participate in the surplus is not specified in the terms of the issue, preference shares are presumed to be not participating. This was affirmed by the House of Lords in Scottish Insurance Corpn Ltd vs. Wilsons & Clyde Coal Co Ltd.³

3. Preference shares are always presumed to be cumulative and the accumulation of dividend can be excluded only by a clear provision in the articles of association⁴

Illustration – Q&A

Can a company have only preference share capital?

Answer – It may be noted that while a company may have only equity share capital but it cannot have only preference share capital. This is because preference shareholders have certain 'preferential rights' over the equity shareholders.

Thus, in the absence of equity share capital, there cannot be preferential share capital⁵

Equity Share Capital [Section 43(a) read with explanation (i) to section 43]

Shares capital which are not preference shares capital are termed as equity shares capital. Equity share capital are further classified as;

- a. Equity share with voting right (Plain vanilla, because equitable/same voting rights) or
- b. Equity share with differential rights with respect to dividend or voting rights or otherwise in accordance with Rule 4 of the Companies (Share capital and Debenture) Rules, 2014.

³ 1949 AC 462 HL

⁴ Staples v. Eastman Photographic Materials Co (1896)

⁵ Bihar State Financial Corporation vs. CIT Bihar (1976)

Equity shares are often referred as to ordinary share and sometime as common share.

2. Section 106 specify provisions regarding restriction on voting rights.
3. Section 43 has overriding effect on section 47, hence holders of equity share capital with differential rights will exercise voting right as per clauses of article of association or terms of issue; rather on proportional basis.

Second Proviso to section 47 (2) empowers preference shareholder with right to vote on all the resolutions placed before the company, in case where the dividend in respect of his class of preference shares has not been paid for a period of two years or more.

Summary of section 47

Example 4 – Indswift Pharma Labs Limited raised the capital of 300 crore through issue of single series of 8% preference share apart from 1200 crore ordinary shares. Indswift last paid dividend to such preference share holder, for 2021-22.

Preference shareholder w.e.f 1st April 2024 assume the right to vote on any resolution placed before company. But till 31st March 2024 they can vote only on that resolution which directly affect the rights attached to his preference shares or involve matter of the winding up of the company, or for the repayment or reduction of its equity or preference share capital.

The proportion of voting right of equity shareholders to the voting rights of the preference shareholders shall be 4:1.

Section 47 shall not apply to:

1. A Specified IFSC Public Company, where memorandum of association or articles of association of such company provides for it.⁹
2. A private company, where memorandum or articles of association of the private company so provides.

5. VARIATION OF SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS [SECTION 48]

A shareholder who was given the right to purchase the shares of the company on a pre-emptive basis was held to constitute a special class distinguishing him from other shareholders who did not have any such right, and consequently, his right was not permitted to be taken away without his consent.¹⁰ If it is proposed to change the rights of any class, certain procedure has to be followed.

Section 48 allows the variation, if three conditions (First two stated by sub-section 1, while third and last one by sub-section 2) has been met.

First - There should be a provision in the memorandum or articles of the company entitling it to vary such class rights, in absence of same; the terms of issue of the shares of that class not prohibiting such a variation.

Second - The holders of at-least 75% of the issued shares of that class must have given their consent in writing or pass a special resolution sanctioning the variation at a separate class meeting.

Proviso to sub-section 1, provides if variation by one class of shareholders affects the rights of any other class of shareholders, the consent of three-fourths of such other class of shareholders shall also be obtained and the provisions of this section shall apply to such variation.

⁹ GSR 8 (E), dated 4th January, 2017

¹⁰ Cumbrian Newspapers Group Ltd v. Cumberland Sf Westmorland Herald Newspaper & Printing Co Ltd (1987) 2 Comp LJ39.

Third - The holders of at least 10 per cent of the shares of that class who did not consent to or vote in favour of the resolution may apply to the Tribunal and then variation shall not take effect unless and until it is confirmed by the Tribunal.

Procedural Aspects for confirmation from tribunal

An application should be made within 21 days of the date of consent or resolution. It can be made by one (or more of their number) as they may appoint in writing; on behalf of the shareholders entitled to make the application

Sub-section 3 provides, the decision of the Tribunal have binding effect upon shareholders of the class. Further sub-section 4 requires the company to file a copy of the order with the Registrar within 30 days of the date of the order.

Illustration - MCQ

DBS Chemicals Limited issue ordinary share of different classes. DBS planned to vary rights of one the class wherein there were only 105 holders. 100 out of 105 holders own 0.5% shares of that class, whereas each of remaining 5 holders hold 10% shares of that class. Presuming 100 holder who own 0.5% shares already signed/authorised the consent letter sanctioning the variation, how many holders out of such 5 need to authorise the said letter to approve the variation.

Options;

- a. 0
- b. 1
- c. 3
- d. 5

Answer – c. (Refer section 48(1))

The holders of at-least 75% of the issued shares of that class must have given their consent in writing or pass a special resolution sanctioning the variation at a separate class meeting.

Mind it is 75% of issued shares' holders not 75% of holders.

Crux of some of landmark judgements – to better understand the 'variation'

New issue of preference shares ranking pari-passu with the existing shares does not amount to variation so as to require the consent of preference shareholders.¹¹

Cancellation of shares and reduction of capital also do not amount to variation of class rights.¹²

6. CALLS ON SHARE [SECTION 49 TO SECTION 51]

The liability of a shareholder to pay the full value of the shares held by him, which is currently partly paid-up is enforced by making "calls" for payment.

It is worth noting here that every shareholder is under a statutory liability to pay the full amount of his shares as section 10(2) declares that "all money payable by any member to the company under the memorandum or articles shall be a debt due from him to the company".

But the liability to pay this debt arises only when a valid call has been made. Section 49 lay down the principle of uniformity, whereas section 50 deals with calls in advance and section 51 contains the provisions regarding dividend rights on paid-up amount.

CALL SHALL BE ON UNIFORM BASIS [SECTION 49]

Calls shall be made on a uniform basis on all shares that are falling under the same class.

Note:

1. Usually share with same nominal value are considered as same class, but shares of the same nominal value on which different sums have been paid shall not be deemed, for this purpose, to fall under the same class.
2. A shareholder on whom a regular call for payment has been served may choose to pay only a part of the sum due.

¹¹ White v. Bristol Aeroplane Co Ltd (1953) 2 WLR 144.

¹² Essar Steel Ltd, re, (2005) 59 SCL457 (Guj)

Here it is important to consider the debt (of calls made) is not an entire and indivisible debt, therefore, the company may be bound to accept the amount tendered by the shareholder

3. How much to call on partly-paid share?

This will be the decision of board, subject to clauses to Article and terms of issue.

Example 6 – Prism Glass Limited issued three series of equity shares, all carry the nominal value of ₹ 100, and the paid-up value for each series is 100, 80 and 55 respectively.

All will be considered as different class of shares. Since for first class share is fully paid-up, no call can be made, whereas in case of remaining two classes call can be made.

Illustration – Q&A

Where a shareholder paid the first two calls after a great delay and neglected to pay the third call and the directors, being annoyed, and called upon him to pay the whole amount due. In your opinion is call valid?

Answer - A call can't be made on some of the members only, unless they constitute a separate class of shareholders, hence such a call shall be invalid.¹³

CALLS-IN-ADVANCE [SECTION 50]

As per Section 50, a company may, if so authorised by its articles, accept from any member the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, although no part of that amount has been called up.

Note

- 1. Such advance payment will not entitle the member to more voting rights as compared with other members until all have been called upon to pay.
- 2. Interest can be paid on such advance, if permitted by article. Here it is worth nothing that, where the rate of interest is permitted by the articles on such advance payment, same could be varied by shareholders in general meeting. To illustrate; a rate 6 percent may increase to 10% by shareholders.¹⁴

Example 7 - Coriander Masale Limited has issued 10,00,000 equity shares of ₹ 10 each on which ₹ 6 per share has been called till allotment and the first and final call of ₹ 4 is yet to be made. Reena holds 10,000 shares on which she has paid whole of ₹ 10 per share. In the upcoming extra-ordinary general meeting of the company she wants to exercise her voting rights as the owner of fully paid-up shares. However, the company cannot permit her as she does not have voting right in respect of the 'advance amount' paid by her in respect of first and final call. The restriction will continue till the amount is duly called up by the company.

¹³ Galloway v. Halle Concerts Society, (1915) 2 Ch 233

¹⁴ CIT v. Manipl Industries Ltd, (1997) 12 SCL 15 (ITAT).

Illustration – Q&A

Moon Star Machineries Limited is authorised by its articles to accept the whole or any part of the amount of remaining unpaid calls from any member even if no part of that amount has been called up by it. 'Anand', a shareholder, deposits in advance the remaining amount due on his partly paid-up shares without any calls being made by the company. Advise the company about the validity of accepting money in advance.

Answer - In view of the authorisation given by the Articles, Moon Star Machineries Limited is permitted to accept the advance amount received on unpaid calls from Anand. In other words, this is a valid transaction.

PAYMENT OF DIVIDEND IN PROPORTION TO PAID-UP AMOUNT [SECTION 51]

The company if so authorised by article, may be permitted to pay dividends in proportion to the amount paid-up on each share.

The Board of Directors of a company may decide to pay dividends on pro rata basis if all the equity shares of the company are not equally paid-up. However, in the case of preference shares, dividend is always paid at a fixed rate.

7. ISSUE OF SHARES AT A PREMIUM OR DISCOUNT [SECTION 52 & SECTION 53]

ISSUE OF SHARES AT A PREMIUM & APPLICATION OF PREMIUM [SECTION 52]

Since there is no restriction imposed by the Act on the sale of shares at a premium, hence if the market exists, a company may issue its shares at a price higher than their face/nominal value. But the Act does regulate the disbursement of the amount collected as premium through section 52.

Note:

1. The power to issue shares at premium need not be specifically provided by AOA.
2. SEBI guidelines have to be observed by listed entities, as regulations indicate when an issue has to be at par and when premium is chargeable.

When a company issues shares at a price higher than their face value, the shares are said to be issued at premium and the differential amount is termed as premium.

Example 8 - A share having face value of ₹ 10 is issued at a price of ₹ 14. The amount over and above the face value of ₹ 10 i.e. ₹ 4 is called premium.

Practical Insight

XYZ Luxuries IPO opens on Sep 28, 2022, and closes on Sep 30, 2022. The date of listing on NSE SME was October 11, 2022 (Tuesday). Fixed issue price against the Face Value of ₹ 10 per share is ₹ 40 per share. Hence, premium charges is ₹30 per share.

Transfer of premium to Securities Premium Account [Sub-section1]

Sub-section 1 lay-down following principles that shall be observed in regards to premium;

- a. Premium may be received in cash or in kind.
- b. The amount of premium so received, whether in cash or kind, shall be carried to a separate account to be known as the Securities Premium Account.
- c. The amount to the credit of share premium account has to be maintained with the same sanctity as paid-up share capital
- d. It can be reduced only in the manner of paid-up share capital can be reduced under this act. Liberty is, however, given to use the fund in the sub-section 2 and 3.

Note:

1. The amount to the credit of the share premium account has to be shown as a separate item in the Balance-sheet under Schedule III, Part B of the Act and if it was disposed of either wholly or partly, then disclosure shall be made 'how it was disposed'?

2. The DCA was of opinion that the amount of premium can't be treated as a free reserve as it is in the nature of a capital reserve.¹⁵
3. A reduction of the premium account was allowed under a scheme which experts had approved as fair, just and proper.¹⁶

Application of Premium received on Issue of Shares [sub-section 2 & 3]

Sub-section 2 allow the companies to apply securities premium account for:

- a. Issue of fully paid bonus shares;
- b. Writing off the preliminary expenses;
- c. Writing off the issue expenses (expenses including commission paid or discount allowed on any issue of shares or debentures);
- d. Premium payable on the redemption (of any preference shares or of any debentures); or
- e. Buy-back (purchase of its own shares or other securities under section 68).

Sub-section 3 has overriding effect over sub-section 1 and 2. It restricts the application of Securities Premium Account in case of;

Such class of companies, as may be prescribed and whose financial statement comply with the accounting standards prescribed for such class of companies under Section 133

For the purpose of:

- a. Issue of fully paid bonus shares;
- b. Writing off the issue expenses (expenses including commission paid or discount allowed on any issue of shares);
- c. Buy-back (purchase of its own shares or other securities under section 68).

PROHIBITION ON ISSUE OF SHARES AT DISCOUNT [SECTION 53]

Where the issue price is lower than the face value of the shares, such issue of shares is regarded as being issued at discount and the differential amount is known as discount.

¹⁵ Circular No 3/77 of 15-4-1977

¹⁶ Zee Tele Films Ltd, re, (2005) 124 Comp Cas 102 (Bom).

Example 9 - A share having face value of ₹ 100 is issued at a lower price of ₹ 95. The differential amount of ₹ 5 is known as discount which is being allowed by the company.

Though title of section used the word prohibited, but indeed issue of share at discount is not fully prohibited, it is only restricted especially after the enactment of the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2017 (effective from 09th February 2018).

Sub-section 1, except the issue of 'Sweat Equity Shares' under section 54 of this Act, a company shall not issue shares at discount.

Further, sub-section 2, provides any share issued at discount by company is void.

Sub-section 2A, is overriding provision (to sub-section 1 and 2) inserted though Companies (Amendment) Act, 2017 empowers the company to issue shares at discount to its creditors as result of converting their debt on company into shares as a result of:

- a. Statutory resolution plan or
- b. Debt restructuring scheme

In accordance with any guidelines or directions or regulations specified by the Reserve Bank of India under the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 or the Banking (Regulation) Act, 1949.

Sub-section 3 provides the penalties that can be imposed where any company fails to comply with the provisions of Section 53.

Liabe	Penalty
Every officer who is in default	Upto an amount equal to the amount raised through the issue of shares at a discount or five lakh rupees, whichever is less
Company	Refund all monies received with interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date of issue of such shares

Note:

It is to be noted that the restrictions mentioned in Sections 52 and 53 shall apply only in respect of issue of shares (either equity or preference shares) but not to the issue of any debt related products like bonds or debentures whose pricing is mostly governed by YTM (yield to maturity) considerations.

9. ISSUE AND REDEMPTION OF PREFERENCE SHARES [SECTION 55]

Following diagram depicts the types of preference shares:

PROHIBITION ON ISSUE OF IRREDEEMABLE PREFERENCE SHARES [SUB-SECTION 1]

A company limited by shares shall not issue any preference shares which are irredeemable.

It worth noting that the amendment of 1988 to the Companies Act 1956, abolished the category of irredeemable preference shares.

ISSUE AND REDEMPTION OF REDEEMABLE PREFERENCE SHARE [SUB-SECTION 2]

From the sub-section 1, it can be constructed reasonably that only redeemable preference shares can be issued by company limited by shares, sub-section 2 provides for conditions as applicable to the issue and redemption of redeemable preference shares.

Authorised by Article of Association

A company limited by shares may issue redeemable preference shares only if so authorised by its articles.

Example 9 – Medanta Healthcare Limited is planning to raise the capital through issue of preference share. Its article is silent about this. Board of Directors are of opinion that redeemable share can be issued.

Since in the given case article is silent, not authorise the issue of preference shares expressly, hence Medanta Healthcare Limited can't issue preference share. They may alter the article of association.

Maximum Tenor of redeemable Preference Shares and exception thereto

Sub-section 2 also provides preference shares shall be redeemed within a period not exceeding twenty years from the date of their issue subject to such conditions as are prescribed in Rule 9 of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014.

These conditions laid-down by sub-rule 1 are;

- a. A special resolution in the general meeting of the company shall be passed
- b. At the time of such issue of preference shares, the company should not have subsisting default in the;
 - i. Redemption of preference shares or
 - ii. Payment of dividend due on any preference shares.

Sub-rule 2 and 3 enumerates the matters to be specified in resolution and explanatory statement to be annexed to the notice of such general meeting in which resolution has to be passed respectively.

Sub-rule 4 requires a company that issues preference shares, to maintain a Register of Members under Section 88, which shall contain the particulars in respect of such preference shareholder(s).

Further sub-rule 5 provides that if company wish to list its preference shares on a recognized stock exchange, shall issue such shares in accordance with the regulations made by the SEBI in this behalf.

Exception to maximum tenor limit of twenty years (First proviso to section 55(2) read with explanation to section 55 and Rule 9 of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014).

For infrastructure projects specified in schedule VI of this Act, a company may issue preference shares for a period exceeding twenty years but not exceeding thirty years subject to the redemption of at least 10% of such preference shares annually, beginning from 21st year onwards or earlier, on proportionate basis, at the option of preferential shareholders.

Redemption of Preference Shares [Second proviso to section 55(2)]

Second proviso to section 55(2) provide conditions for redemption and payment of premium on redemption, if any

- a. Preference shares shall be redeemed out of;
 1. Profits of the company which would otherwise be available for dividend or
 2. Proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of such redemption.
- b. Shares to be redeemed shall be fully paid.
- c. Where such shares are proposed to be redeemed out of the profits of the company;
 1. A sum equal to the nominal amount of the shares to be redeemed, out of such profits (profit & free reserves, which otherwise is available for dividend), shall be transferred to a reserve, called Capital Redemption Reserve
 2. The amount to the credit of Capital Redemption Reserve has to be maintained with the same sanctity as paid-up share capital
 3. Capital Redemption Reserve can be reduced only in the manner of paid-up share capital can be reduced under this Act.

For the purpose of this section

1. Redemption of preference shares is not taken as reduction of the company's authorised share capital.
2. The company may issue new shares up to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed and the capital shall not be deemed to have been increased.

Example 10 - During the current financial year, the Board of Directors of Vintee Lifestyles Garments Limited is to undertake redemption of 20,000 preference shares of ₹ 100 each at a premium of ₹ 20 per share. It is made out by the Accounts Department that the profits are sufficient to meet the ensuing liability arising out of redemption of preference shares at premium. In this case, the amount that needs to be transferred to Capital Redemption Reserve account out of profits which are otherwise available for dividend, is ₹ 20,00,000 being the sum equal to the nominal amount of the preference shares to be redeemed. There is no need to transfer to CRR account any amount paid towards premium.

d. Source of premium, if any; payable at redemption of preference shares

In case of such class of companies, as may be prescribed and whose financial statement comply with the accounting standards prescribed for such class of companies under section 133, the premium, if any, payable on redemption shall be provided for out of the profits of the company, before the shares are redeemed.

Provided also that premium, if any, payable on redemption of any preference shares issued on or before the commencement of this Act by any such company shall be provided for out of the profits of the company or out of the company's securities premium account, before such shares are redeemed.

In a case not falling under above scenario, the premium, if any, payable on redemption shall be provided for out of the profits of the company or out of the company's securities premium account, before such shares are redeemed.

Summary of above provisions are tabled below;

Category	Source	Timing (Shall be provided)
Such class of companies, as may be prescribed and whose financial statement comply with the accounting standards prescribed for such class of companies under section 133	Out of the profits of the company	before such shares are redeemed

Premium payable on redemption of any preference shares issued on or before the commencement of this Act	Out of the profits of the company or out of the company's securities premium account
Any other case

Issue of further Redeemable Preference Shares (if a Company is unable to redeem existing preference shares or pay dividend) [Sub-section 3]

Where a company is not in a position to redeem any preference shares or to pay dividend on such preference shares (called unredeemed preference shares) in accordance with the terms of issue; then such company may issue further redeemable preference shares to the holder of unredeemed preference shares; equal to the amount due, including the dividend thereon; with the consent of the holders of three-fourth in value of such unredeemed preference shares, and approval of the tribunal on a petition made by it in this behalf.

In this way the unredeemed preference shares shall be deemed to have been redeemed.

Where a company is not in a position to redeem any preference shares or to pay dividend on such preference shares (called unredeemed preference shares) in accordance with the terms of issue;

Then such company may issue further redeemable preference shares to the holder of unredeemed preference shares;

Equal to the amount due, including the dividend thereon;

With the consent of the holders of three-fourth in value of such unredeemed preference shares, and approval of the tribunal on a petition made by it in this behalf.

In this way the unredeemed preference shares shall be deemed to have been redeemed.

Note:

In regards to preference shares held by shareholder who have not consented to the issue of further redeemable preference shares, the tribunal shall order the redemption forthwith; while giving approval under section 55(3).

Example 11 – Bell Homes Furnisher Limited (BHFL) unable to redeem the preference shares as they become due. Hence BHFL decided to issue further preference share against unredeemed preference shares. Holder holding 93% of such unredeemed preference shares in value, gave their consent; tribunal also assented to issue of further preference shares. The 18 holders who own remaining 7% seek redemption of shares held by them.

In this case while giving approval under section 55(3), tribunal shall order the redemption forthwith of shares (7% in value) held by dissenting 18 holders.

Utilisation of CRR Account [Sub-section 4]

The capital redemption reserve account may be applied in paying up unissued shares of the company to be issued to the members as fully paid bonus shares.

10. TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES AND THE ALLIED PROVISIONS [SECTION 56 TO SECTION 59]

The procedures and formalities for the transfer of the securities as laid down by sections 56-59 are largely applicable to securities that are in other form than demat form.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES OR INTEREST OF MEMBER IN COMPANY [SECTION 56]

Requirement for Registering the Transfer of Securities [Sub-section 1]

Except, where the transfer is between persons both of whose names are entered as holders of beneficial interest in the records of a depository

A company shall register a transfer of;

- a. securities of the company, or

- b. the interest of a member in the company in the case of a company having no share capital,

Only if, following conditions fulfilled prior to such registration;

- a. The instrument of transfer must be executed both by the transferor and the transferee.
- b. The instrument must specify the name, address and occupation, if any, of the transferee.
- c. The instrument of transfer should be duly stamped and dated.
- d. The instrument of transfer should be in the prescribed form. As per Rule 11 (1) of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014, Form No. SH-4 is to be used, in case securities are held in physical form
- e. The instrument should be delivered to the company along with the certificate relating to the shares transferred within 60 days from the date of execution. If the share certificate is not in existence, the letter of allotment of securities should be filed.

The proviso to Section 56(1) says that where the instrument of transfer has been lost or it has not been delivered within the prescribed period (i.e. 60 days from the date of Execution), the company may register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit.

Transfer of partly paid Shares on an application of transferor alone (Sub-section 3 read with rule 11 (3) of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014

Where an application is made by the transferor alone and relates to partly paid shares, a company shall not register a transfer of partly paid shares, unless the company has given a notice in Form No. SH-5 to the transferee and the transferee has given no objection to the transfer within two weeks from the date of receipt of notice.

Example 12 - Himanshu has received a notice from Chaitanya Progressive Books Private Limited on 7th August, 2023 intimating that Shefali has submitted a transfer deed duly signed by her for transfer of 500 partly paid shares (₹ 6 paid-up out of Face Value of ₹ 10 per share) in his name.

Himanshu as transferee must raise his objection to the proposed transfer of partly paid shares latest by 21st August, 2023.

Exemptions¹⁷ in case of government companies/securities

Government Company, which has not committed a default in filing its financial statements under section 137 or Annual Return under section 92 with the Registrar given.

Full exemption from conditions laid-down by section 56(1) in respect to transfer of securities held by nominees of the Government.

Partial exemption in respect to transfer of bonds issued by a Government company. Only an intimation by the transferee specifying his name, address and occupation, if any, has been delivered to the company along with the certificate relating to the bond; and if no such certificate is in existence, along with the letter of allotment of the bond. There is no requirement of proper instrument of transfer, to be duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee.

Power to Register Transmission not affected by section 56 (1) (Sub-section 2)

The power of company to register transmission shall not be affected by the conditions imposed by Section 56 (1) for registration of transfer.

Hence company is empowered to register transmission of right, if it receives an intimation from any person to whom such right has been transmitted. There is no need for submission of instrument of transfer in case of transmission.

Transmission (vis-à-vis transfer).

The word 'transmission' means devolution of title to securities otherwise than by transfer, for example, devolution by death, succession, inheritance, bankruptcy, marriage, etc. On registration of the transmission of securities, the person entitled to transmission of securities becomes the holder and is entitled to all rights and subject to all liabilities arising therefrom.

While transfer of shares is brought about by delivery of a proper instrument of transfer (viz, transfer deed) duly stamped and executed, transmission of shares is done by forwarding the necessary documents (such as a notarised copy of death certificate) to the company.

¹⁷ In terms of Notification No. GSR 463 (E), dated 5th June, 2015

Few cases of transmission for better understanding - In the following cases (mind it this list is not exhaustive, only illustrative), transmission of shares shall take place:

1. Death: When a shareholder expires, his shares need to be transmitted to his legal representative.
2. Insolvency: When a shareholder becomes insolvent, his shares are to be transmitted to his Official Receiver.
3. Lunacy: When a shareholder becomes lunatic, his shares are to be transmitted to his administrator appointed by the Court.

Transfer of Security of the Deceased Person by his Legal Representative [Sub-section 5]

The transfer of any security (or other interest in company) made by legal representative of a deceased person, shall be valid as if such legal representative is holder at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer; even if, in actual such legal representative is not a registered holder.

This sub-section is basically bringing ease to legal heir with deeming effect of being holder of security or other interest in company of a deceased person.

Example 13 - Richa Daniel, after having obtained succession certificate, succeeded to 7,000 shares of ₹ 100 each allotted to her late father Alexander Daniel by Speed Software Limited. To pay off the debt of her cousin Stesley, she wants to transfer whole of the 7,000 shares to her on the basis of a duly stamped instrument of transfer which has been signed by her as well as Stesley. Accordingly, she has delivered the required documents to the company for transfer of shares.

In terms of Section 56 (5), the company, on receipt of duly stamped instrument of transfer along with requisite share certificates and succession certificate, shall transfer the shares in favour of Stesley. Thus, even though Richa Daniel, the legal representative of Alexander Daniel, is not a holder of 7,000 shares as per the Register of Members of the company, the transfer effected by her in favour of her cousin Stesley is a valid transfer as if she had been the holder of securities at the time of executing the transfer deed.

Note - As an alternative, Richa Daniel may choose to get herself registered as holder of the 7,000 shares in which case, she will make an application to Speed Software Limited. Such application shall be accompanied with share certificates and succession certificate. There is no need to submit instrument of transfer or transfer deed in such a case of transmission. This is so because transfer deed cannot be signed by the deceased person as transferor.

On receipt of these documents, the company will scrutinize them and if found in order, it shall proceed to enter the name of Richa Daniel in the Register of Members. Consequently, the name of the deceased person i.e. Alexander Daniel shall be deleted. Further, new share certificates will be issued in the name of Richa Daniel, the legal representative of Alexander Daniel.

Time Period for Delivery of certificates [sub-section 4]

Every company shall, unless prohibited by any provision of law or any order of Court, Tribunal or other authority, deliver the certificates of all securities allotted, transferred or transmitted;

Example 14 – A request for transfer of shares has been received by Ind-swift Pharma Labs Limited in form SH-4 along with instrument of transfer on 25th November 2022. The company shall deliver the certificate to that effect by 24th December 2022.

Liabe	Default	Penalty

Liability of Depository [Sub-section 7]

Where any depository or depository participant, with an intention to defraud a person, has transferred shares, it shall be liable under Section 447 along with the liability mentioned under the Depositories Act, 1996.

Note:

1. With the dematerialisation process becoming a necessity in case of unlisted public companies i.e. they are required to dematerialise all of their securities as per Rule 9A of the Companies (Prospectus and Allotment of Securities) Rules, 2014, the chances of forgery are very thin or almost negligible.

2. The provisions contained in Section 447 which describe 'punishment for fraud' are stated in the earlier Chapter 3 relating to 'Prospectus and Allotment of Securities'.

PUNISHMENT FOR PERSONATION OF SHAREHOLDER [SECTION 57]

Such person shall be punishable with;

- a. Imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one year but which may extend to three years and
- b. Fine which shall not be less than one lakh rupees but which may extend to five lakh rupees.

Penalty	Minimum	Maximum up to
Imprisonment	One year	Three years
And
Fine	One Lakh	Five lakh

Note:

Personation for acquisition of securities is offence under section 38 punishable under section 447. Mind it section 447 is general provision.

Gravity of offence committed by personation under section 38 and section 57 may be considered while imposing penalty out of range provided.

It is worth noting, offence of cheating by personation under section 416 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 is punishable under section 419 of code, with punishment of either description which may extend upto three year or with fine or with both.

Student may refer section 38 and section 447, both covered under chapter 3 of this module.

Additional Reading on Forged Transfer

A forged transfer is a 'nullity' and is not legally binding. Forged transfer takes place when a company effects transfer of shares on the basis of an instrument of transfer containing forged signatures of transferor. Is it possible for a transferee of 'forged transfer' to acquire ownership of shares contained in the instrument of transfer? The answer is 'NO'. At the same time, the transferor who is the real owner continues to be the shareholder and accordingly, the company can be forced by him to delete the name of the transferee and to restore his name as owner of shares in the Register of Members.

What will happen if the transferee of 'forged transfer' transfers the shares to another buyer who does not know about the forgery and the company also registers the transfer in the name of new buyer and endorses the share certificates. In fact, the company cannot deny the ownership rights of new genuine buyer but it can also not deny the ownership rights of original shareholder because 'forged transfer' is void ab-initio and therefore, the company has to restore his name. While restoring the name of the original shareholder, the company may be asked to compensate the new genuine buyer who exercised good faith in purchasing the shares. As a remedy, the company may get itself indemnified by the first transferee who used the forged instrument of transfer to get the shares transferred in his name.

REFUSAL OF REGISTRATION AND APPEAL AGAINST REFUSAL [SECTION 58]

Shares are movable property, hence can be transferred by the shareholders in the manner prescribed by the Articles. The right to transfer shares is absolute in nature and inherently vested with the ownership of the shares. In no case Articles can take away the rights of members to transfer shares in absolute, by making shares non-transferable.

Shares of a public company are freely transferable, whereas a private company is required under section 2(68)(i) to restrict the right of the members to transfer the shares. The articles of association of private companies contain certain kind of restrictions on the transferability of shares. Generally, the restriction put by a private company is that of pre-emption whereby the members are required to offer their shares first to the existing members of the company before offering them to the outsiders.

Section 58 contains the procedure which needs to be followed by a company while refusing to register the transfer of securities. It also contains process of filing appeal against such refusal.

Summary of section 58

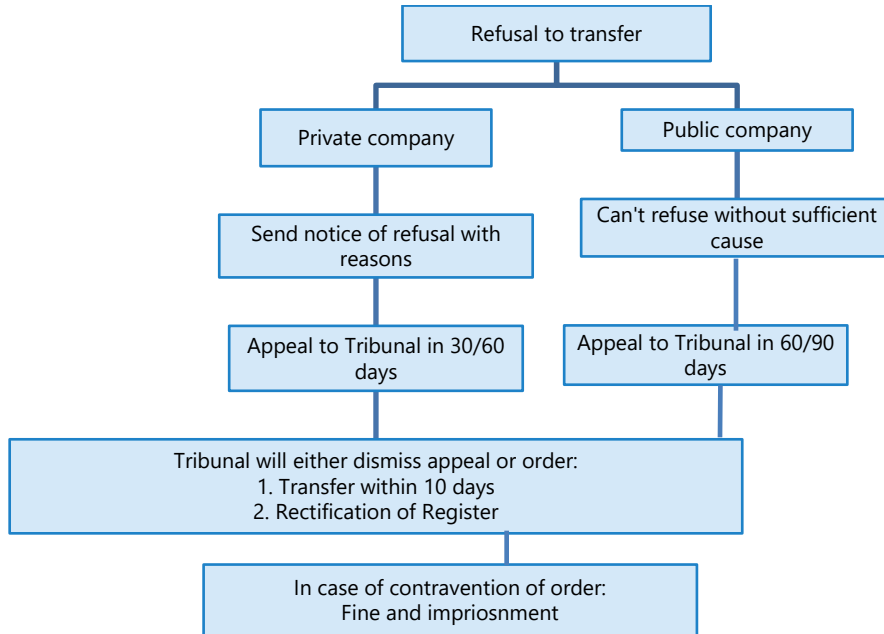

Illustration – T&F

Notice of refusal to register transfer of shares by private company shall be sent only to the transferee within 30 days, stating reasons of refusal therein.

Answer – False, notice of refusal shall be given to both transferee and transferor under section 58(1).

RECTIFICATION OF REGISTER OF MEMBERS [SECTION 59]

It is the duty of the company to keep the register up to date so as to give at all times the accurate and correct position as to particulars of shareholding, because If a person's name appears in the register of members, he is presumed to be the shareholder or member, even if, in fact, he is not so. Contrarily, if a person's name is absent from the register, apparently he is not a member, although he may have done everything to entitle him to become one.

Section 59 entrust right to appeal with aggrieved person, apart from vesting power in tribunal to order for rectification of register of members.

Appeal by Aggrieved Person [Sub-section 1]

An aggrieved person, member of company or company may appeal to tribunal or to a competent court (outside India, specified by the Central Government by notification, in respect of foreign members or debenture holders residing outside India), for rectification of the register if without sufficient cause,

- a. the name of any person is entered in the register of members of a company, or
- b. the name of any person is omitted, after having been entered in the register, or
- c. if a default is made, or unnecessary delay takes place in entering in the register, the fact of any person having become or ceased to be a member.

Note:

The words "unnecessary delay" have not been defined in the Act and, therefore, it becomes a question of evidence to be decided on the facts of each case. A failure to register a transfer within one month of the application, which was contrary to the listing agreement, was held to be an unreasonable delay.

Every shareholder has an interest in the proper maintenance of the company's register of members. Any member can make an application without showing any injury or prejudice to him. Personal grievance is not necessary for locus standi.

Order of the Tribunal [Sub-section 2]

Tribunal may, after hearing the parties to the appeal either dismiss the appeal or by order;

- a. Direct that the transfer or transmission shall be registered by the company within a period of ten days of the receipt of the order, or
- b. Direct rectification of the records of the depository or the register and in the latter case, direct the company to pay damages, if any, sustained by the party aggrieved.

Example 17– After hearing both parties of appeal over removal of name of applicant from register of member without sufficient cause, tribunal pass an order to reinstate the name in register with payment of damages to holder as well cost of litigation. Company has to pay damages as ordered apart from rectification of the register.

Status of Bonus Shares from lens of the Judiciary

Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Standard Chartered Bank v. Custodian²⁶

Bonus share is an accretion. A bonus share is issued when the company capitalises its profits by transferring an amount equal to the face value of the share from its reserve to the nominal capital.

In other words, the undistributed profit of the company is retained by the company under the head of capital against the issue of further shares to its shareholders. Bonus shares have, therefore, been described as a distribution of capitalised undivided profit.

In the case of issue of bonus share there is an increase in the capital of the company by transferring of an amount from its reserve to the capital account and thereby resulting in additional shares being issued to the shareholders.

A bonus share is a property which comes into existence with an identity and value of its own and capable of being bought and sold as such.

12. DEBENTURE [SECTIONS 71]

DEFINITION AND FEATURES OF DEBENTURE

Definition [Section 2(30)]

Debenture includes debenture stock, bonds or any other instrument of a company evidencing a debt, whether constituting a charge on the assets of the company or not.

Provided that following shall not be treated as debenture

- a. the instruments referred to in Chapter III-D of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934; and
- b. such other instrument, as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, issued by a company,

Debenture Includes	Debenture Excludes
Debenture stock Bonds Any other instrument of a company evidencing a debt Whether constituting a charge on the assets of the company or not	Instruments referred to in Chapter III-D of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 and Such other instrument, as may be prescribed by the Central Government

Features of Debentures

- a. A debenture is the smallest unit of a sizeable amount of loan.
- b. When debentures are issued, the applicants are given certificates representing the money they have lent to the company.
- c. A debenture certificate is issued by the company under its common seal, if any, or under the signatures of two directors or a director and the company secretary, if he has been appointed.
- d. The company pays periodic interest on the amount raised by issuing debentures till they are fully redeemed.
- e. A debenture is generally pre-fixed with the rate of interest which the company intends to pay.

Example 28 - The name '10% Debentures' indicates that the company shall pay interest at the rate of 10% on the outstanding amount till maturity of such debentures.

- f. Voting rights are not available in case of debentures as section 71 (2) of the Act, clearly states that no company shall issue any debentures carrying any voting rights.

- g. As per section 44 of the Act, a debenture is in the nature of movable property which is transferable as per the provisions contained in the Articles of the company issuing the debentures.
- h. A debenture may be secured or unsecured. In case of secured debentures, a charge is created on the assets of the company in favour of debenture trustee.
- i. As per the terms of the issue of debentures, they may be redeemed (i.e. repaid) at the end of full term or in installments, say yearly or bi-yearly or any other period like in two installments.
- j. The terms of issue may also provide for conversion of debentures at maturity into equity shares at the option of the debenture holders.
- k. The debenture certificates are required to be delivered within a period of six months under section 56(4)(d) of the Act, from the date of allotment of debentures, unless the company is prohibited by any provision of law or any order of Court, Tribunal or any other authority.

Example 29 - Sigma Computers Limited desires to borrow ₹ 50,00,000 from the public by issuing 7% debentures. It is intended that each unit of debenture shall be of ₹ 100. Thus, it can issue 50,000 debentures of ₹ 100 each carrying 7% rate of interest which can be paid at the end of every quarter. If such debentures (secured by a charge on the assets of the company) are issued for six-year duration, the principal amount shall be repaid by the end of sixth year. The terms of issue may even allow repayment of principal amount in equal yearly instalments, in which case a portion of debentures shall be redeemed on yearly basis and the company shall be required to pay interest only on the outstanding amount. The debenture holders may also be given the option of converting their debentures into equity shares at the time of maturity.

Thus, Sigma Computers Limited is able to borrow a large sum of money from different borrowers with the help of debentures and it is not required to approach a single borrower for such a big amount.

In other words, 'issue of debentures' is the most convenient way of borrowing large sums of money and at the same time the debenture holders do not exert any influence over the ownership and working of the company unless their interest is jeopardized by certain decisions.

Answer to Descriptive Questions

1. The legal issues involved herein are covered under Section 62 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013.

Section 62 (1) (a) of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that if, at any time, a company having a share capital proposes to increase its subscribed capital by issue of further shares, such shares should first be offered to the existing equity shareholders of the company as at the date of the offer, in proportion to the paid-up capital on those shares. Hence, the company cannot ignore a section of the existing shareholders and must offer the shares to the existing equity shareholders in proportion of their holdings.

As per facts of the case, the Articles of SV Company Ltd. provide that the new shares should first be offered to the existing shareholders. However, the company offered new shares to all shareholders excepting VRS Company Ltd., which held a major portion of its equity shares. It is to be noted that under the Companies Act, 2013, SV Company Ltd. did not have any legal authority to do so.

Therefore, in the given case, decision of the Board of Directors of SV Company Ltd. not to offer any further equity shares to VRS Company Ltd. on the ground that VRS Company Ltd. already held a high percentage of shareholding in SV Company Ltd. is not valid. Such a decision violates the provisions of section 62 (1) (a) as well as Articles of the issuing company.

2. Alteration of Capital: Under section 61 (1) a limited company having a share capital may, if authorised by its Articles, alter its Memorandum in its general meeting to:
 - (i) increase its authorized share capital by such amount as it thinks expedient;
 - (ii) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares;

However, no consolidation and division which results in changes in the voting percentage of shareholders shall take effect unless it is approved by the Tribunal on an application made in the prescribed manner.

- (iii) convert all or any of its paid- up shares into stock and reconvert that stock into fully paid shares of any denomination.
- (iv) sub-divide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum;
- (v) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

Further, under section 64 where a company alters its share capital in any of the above-mentioned ways, the company shall file a notice in the Form No. SH-7 as per Rule 15 of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014 with the Registrar, along with an altered memorandum within thirty days of alteration. The capital clause of memorandum, if authorised by the Articles, shall be altered by passing an ordinary resolution as per section 61 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013.

3. According to section 56 (4) of the Companies Act, 2013, every company, unless prohibited by any provision of law or of any order of court, Tribunal or other authority, shall deliver the certificates of all shares transferred within a period of one month from the date of receipt by the company of the instrument of transfer.

Further, as per section 56 (6), where any default is made in complying with the provisions of sub-sections (1) to (5), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a penalty of fifty thousand rupees.

4. According to section 55(3) of the Companies Act, 2013, where a company is not in a position to redeem any preference shares or to pay dividend, if any, on such shares in accordance with the terms of issue (such shares hereinafter referred to as unredeemed preference shares), it may—
 - with the consent of the holders of three-fourths in value of such preference shares, and
 - with the approval of the Tribunal on a petition made by it in this behalf, issue further redeemable preference shares equal to the amount due, including the dividend thereon, in respect of the unredeemed preference shares, and on the issue of such further redeemable preference shares, the unredeemed preference shares shall be deemed to have been redeemed.

Provided that the Tribunal shall, while giving approval under this sub-section, order the redemption forthwith of preference shares held by such persons who have not consented to the issue of further redeemable preference shares.

In view of the provisions of section 55 (3), Silver Robotics Limited can initiate steps for the issue of further redeemable preference shares equal to the amount due i.e. ₹ 10,00,000. For this purpose, it shall obtain the consent of the holders of three-fourths in value of such preference shares and also seek approval of the Tribunal by making a petition. In case, there are certain preference shareholders who have not accorded their consent for the proposal of issuing further redeemable preference shares, the Tribunal may order the company to redeem forthwith such preference shares. Accordingly, Silver Robotics Limited must be ready with sufficient funds for the redemption of preference shares held by those who have not consented.

On the issue of such further redeemable preference shares by the company, the unredeemed preference shares shall be deemed to have been redeemed.

5. Sweat equity shares of a class of shares already issued.

According to section 54 of the Companies Act, 2013, a company may issue sweat equity shares of a class of shares already issued, if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely—

- (i) the issue is authorised by a special resolution passed by the company;
- (ii) the resolution specifies the number of shares, the current market price, consideration, if any, and the class or classes of directors or employees to whom such equity shares are to be issued;
- (iii) where the equity shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange, the sweat equity shares are issued in accordance with the regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board in this behalf and if they are not so listed, the sweat equity shares are issued in accordance with such rules as prescribed under Rule 8 of the Companies (Share and Debentures) Rules, 2014,

The rights, limitations, restrictions and provisions as are for the time being applicable to equity shares shall be applicable to the sweat equity shares issued under Section 54 and the holders of such shares shall rank pari passu with other equity shareholders.

Trisha Data Security Limited can issue Sweat equity shares by following the conditions as mentioned above. It does not make any difference that the company is just about a year old, because there is no such age (time since commencement of business) requirement under section 54.

6. Amount lying to the credit of Securities Premium Account is required to be utilised for certain prescribed purposes.

According to section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013, where a company issues shares at a premium, whether for cash or otherwise, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the premium received on those shares shall be transferred to a "securities premium account" and the provisions of this Act relating to reduction of share capital of a company shall, except as provided in this Section, apply as if the securities premium account were the paid-up share capital of the company.

The securities premium account may be applied by the company—

- (a) towards the issue of unissued shares of the company to the members of the company as fully paid bonus shares;
- (b) in writing off the preliminary expenses of the company;
- (c) in writing off the expenses of, or the commission paid or discount allowed on, any issue of shares or debentures of the company;
- (d) in providing for the premium payable on the redemption of any redeemable preference shares or of any debentures of the company; or
- (e) for the purchase of its own shares or other securities under section 68.

The securities premium account may be applied by such class of companies, as may be prescribed and whose financial statement comply with the accounting standards prescribed for such class of companies under section 133,—

- (a) in paying up unissued equity shares of the company to be issued to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares; or
- (b) in writing off the expenses of or the commission paid or discount allowed on any issue of equity shares of the company; or
- (c) for the purchase of its own shares or other securities under section 68.

Keeping the above points in view Walnut Foods Limited should proceed to utilise the amount of Securities Premium Account.

- 7. Restrictions on purchase by company or giving of loans by it for purchase of its share: As per section 67 (3) of the Companies Act, 2013 a company is allowed to give a loan to its employees subject to the following limitations:

- (a) The employee must not be a director or Key Managerial Personnel;
- (b) The amount of such loan shall not exceed an amount equal to six months' salary of the employee.
- (c) The loan must be extended for subscribing fully paid-up shares.

In the given instance, Human Resource Manager Mr. Surya Nayan is not a Key Managerial Personnel of the OLAF Limited. Further, he is drawing a salary of ₹ 40,000 per month and wants to avail loan for purchasing 500 partly paid-up equity shares of ₹ 1000 each of OLAF Limited in which he is employed.

Keeping the above facts and legal provisions in view, the decision of OLAF Limited in granting a loan of ₹ 4,00,000 for purchase of its partly paid-up shares to Human Resource Manager is invalid due to the following reasons:

- i. The amount of loan is more than 6 months' salary of Mr. Surya Nayan, the HR Manager. It should have been restricted to ₹ 2,40,000 only.
 - ii. The loan to be given by OLAF Limited to its HR Manager Mr. Surya Nayan is meant for purchase of partly paid shares.
- 8. Under section 62 (1) (c) of the Companies Act, 2013 where at any time, a company having a share capital proposes to increase its subscribed capital by the issue of further shares, either for cash or for a consideration other than cash, such shares may be offered to any persons, if it is authorised by a special resolution and if the price of such shares is determined by a empowered to allot the shares to Sunil in settlement of its debt to him. This valuation report of a registered valuer, subject to the compliance with the applicable provisions of Chapter III and any other conditions as may be prescribed.

In the present case, Shilpi Developers India Limited's allotment, to be classified as shares issued for consideration other than cash, must be approved by the members by a special resolution. Further, the valuation of the shares must be done by a registered valuer, subject to the compliance with the applicable provisions of Chapter III and any other conditions as may be prescribed.

- 9. Appointment of Debenture Trustee: Under section 71 (5) of the Companies Act, 2013, no company shall issue a prospectus or make an offer or invitation to the public or to its members exceeding five hundred for the subscription of its debentures, unless the company has, before such issue or offer, appointed one or more debenture trustees and the conditions governing the appointment of such trustees shall be such as may be prescribed.

Rule 18 (2) of the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules, 2014, framed under the Companies Act for the issue of secured debentures provide that before the appointment of debenture trustee or trustees, a written consent shall be obtained from such debenture trustee or trustees proposed to be appointed and a statement to that effect shall appear in the letter of offer issued for inviting the subscription of the debentures.

Further according to the rules, no person shall be appointed as a debenture trustee, if he-

- (i) beneficially holds shares in the company;
- (ii) is a promoter, director or key managerial personnel or any other officer or an employee of the company or its holding, subsidiary or associate company;
- (iii) is beneficially entitled to moneys which are to be paid by the company otherwise than as remuneration payable to the debenture trustee;
- (iv) is indebted to the company, or its subsidiary or its holding or associate company or a subsidiary of such holding company;
- (v) has furnished any guarantee in respect of the principal debts secured by the debentures or interest thereon;
- (vi) Has any pecuniary relationship with the company amounting to two percent. or more of its gross turnover or total income or fifty lakh rupees or such higher amount as may be prescribed, whichever is lower, during the two immediately preceding financial years or during the current financial year;

- (vii) is a relative of any promoter or any person who is in the employment of the company as a director or key managerial personnel;

Thus, based on the above provisions answers to the given questions are as follows:

- (i) A shareholder who has no beneficial interest, can be appointed as a debenture trustee.
- (ii) A creditor whom company owes ₹ 499 cannot be appointed as a debenture trustee. The amount owed is immaterial.
- (iii) A person who has given guarantee for repayment of principal and interest thereon in respect of debentures also cannot be appointed as a debenture trustee.

- 10. The problem given in the question is governed by Section 58 of the Companies Act, 2013 dealing with the refusal to register transfer and appeal against such refusal.

In the present case, the company has committed the wrongful act of not sending the notice of refusal to register the transfer of shares.

Under section 58 (1), if a private company limited by shares refuses to register the transfer of, or the transmission by operation of law of the right to any securities or interest of a member in the company, then the company shall send notice of refusal to the transferor and the transferee or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, within a period of thirty days from the date on which the instrument of transfer, or the intimation of such transmission, was delivered to the company.

According to section 58 (3), the transferee may appeal to the Tribunal against the refusal within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the notice or in case no notice has been sent by the company, within a period of sixty days from the date on which the instrument of transfer or the intimation of transmission, was delivered to the company.

In this case, as the company has not sent even a notice of refusal, Ms. Mukta being transferee can file an appeal before the Tribunal within a period of sixty days from the date on which the instrument of transfer was delivered to the company.

11. According to section 63 of the Companies Act, 2013, a company may issue fully paid-up bonus shares to its members, in any manner whatsoever, out of:

- (i) its free reserves;
- (ii) the securities premium account; or

Provided that no issue of bonus shares shall be made by capitalising reserves created by the revaluation of assets.

- (i) it is authorised by its Articles;
- (ii) it has, on the recommendation of the Board, been authorised in the general meeting of the company;
- (iii) it has not defaulted in payment of interest or principal in respect of fixed deposits or debt securities issued by it;
- (iv) it has not defaulted in respect of payment of statutory dues of the employees, such as, contribution to provident fund, gratuity and bonus;
- (v) the partly paid-up shares, if any, outstanding on the date of allotment, are made fully paid-up;
- (vi) it complies with such conditions as are prescribed by Rule 14 of the Companies (Share Capital and debentures) Rules, 2014 which states that the company which has once announced the decision of its Board recommending a bonus issue, shall not subsequently withdraw the same.

Further, the company has to ensure that the bonus shares shall not be issued in lieu of dividend.

For the issue of bonus shares Shankar Portland Cement Limited will require reserves of ₹ 50,00,000 (i.e. half of ₹ 1,00,00,000 being the paid-up share capital), which is readily available with the company. Hence, after following the above conditions relating to the issue of bonus shares, the company may proceed for a bonus issue of 1 share for every 2 shares held by the existing shareholders.

The declaration shall be signed by at least two directors of the company, one of whom shall be the managing director, if any.
