CHAPTER OVERVIEW

1. INTRODUCTION

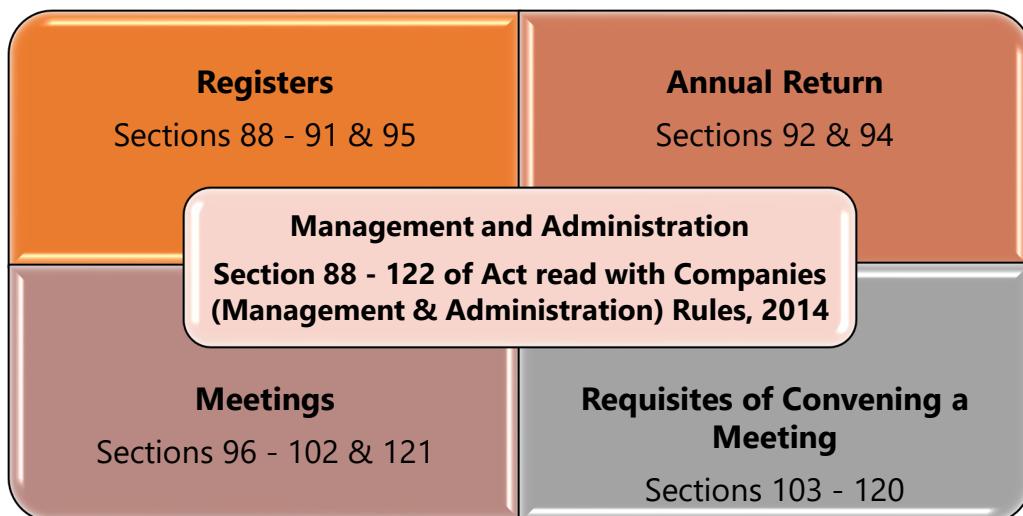

Chapter VII	Consists of sections 88 to 122 as well as the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014.

A company is an artificial legal entity distinct from its members. The affairs of the company are managed by the members and directors through resolutions passed at the validly held meetings. The day-to-day affairs of the company are managed by the directors who collectively act through Board of Directors. The Board performs its role within the powers granted to it. Certain powers can be exercised by the board on its own and some with the consent of the company at the general meetings. In the capacity as owners of the company, the shareholders ratify the actions of the board at the general meetings. In a way, the general meetings serve as the focal point for the shareholders to converge and give their decisions on the actions taken by the directors.

The proceedings of the general meetings are recorded in the 'minutes book'. On yearly basis, a company is required to hold its Annual General Meeting to transact requisite businesses including adoption of financial statements, appointment/re-appointment of directors and auditors, etc., after the close of the financial year. In between two AGMs, a company may hold extra-ordinary general meetings (EGM) also if there is any need to transact certain urgent business. After the conclusion of AGM, the company is required to prepare Annual Return and file a copy thereof with the jurisdictional Registrar of Companies. Every company is duty-bound to maintain register of members, register of debenture-holders and register of other security holders.

Chapter VII of Companies Act, 2013 deals with the provisions relating to management and administration of companies. It covers Sections 88 to 122 and is divided under the following headings–

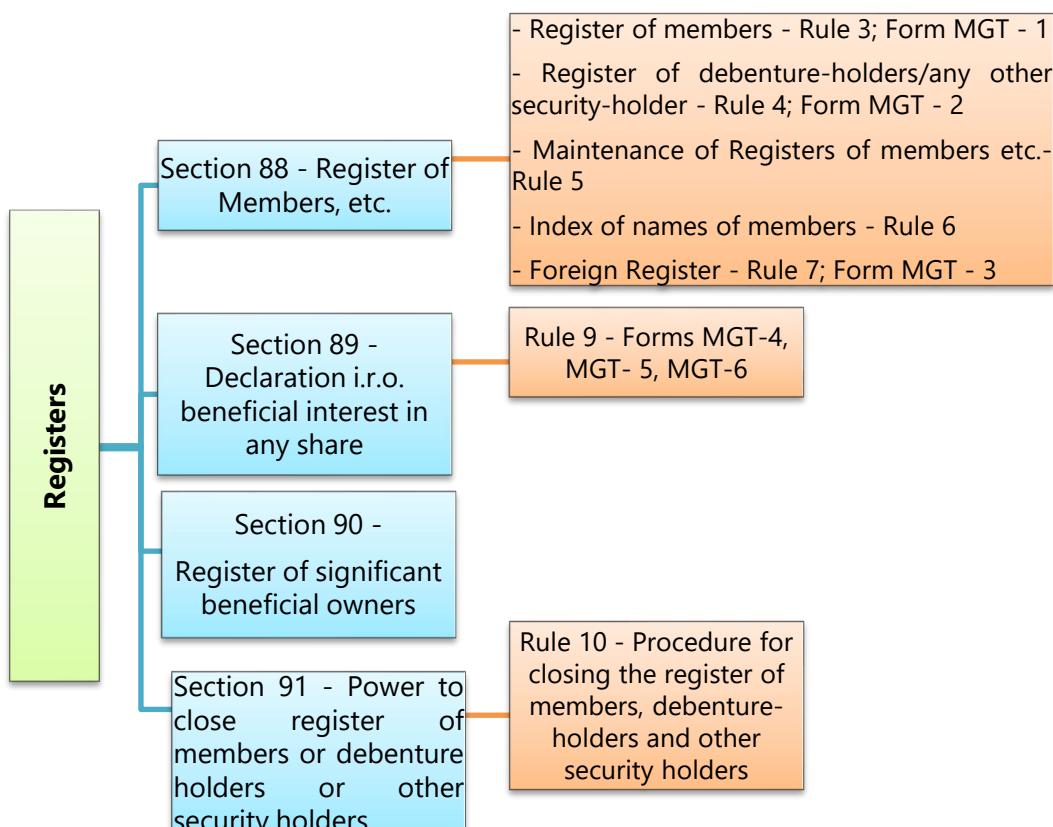

To initiate, it is imperative that we streamline the understanding of this chapter so as to link it with the essential concepts along with their procedures which can be found in the respective rules, i.e. the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 as amended from time to time.

Chapter VII applies to all the companies, public and private, and has special provisions applicable to One Person Company (OPC), which are enumerated in section 122 of the Act and are discussed later in this chapter.

Nature of offence

The offence under this section is a compoundable offence under section 441 of the Act.

Illustration 1

Luxy Hairstyles Private Limited allotted 500 shares in the name of Mr. Zoey's daughter, Mila, who is 4 years old. Mr. Joe, the Director of the company, has approached you to advise him on the entries to be made in the register of members, since Mila is incompetent to contract in her capacity as minor.

Answer: Since minors are not competent to enter into any contract, their names cannot be entered in the register of members without the details of guardians. Therefore, Mr. Joe is advised that while filling MGT – 1, the name of a minor shall be entered only if the details of the guardian are available. Thus, Zoey's name shall also appear in the register of members of Luxy Hairstyles Private Limited since Mila is a minor.

Tanya and Tarun who recently got married were jointly allotted 1000 shares by New Hospitality Services Private Limited. Tarun intimated the company that only the name of his wife should appear in the records of the company in respect of joint holding of shares allotted to them. The directors of the company are not sure whether this is possible, given that the shares are held in the names of both Tanya and Tarun.

Answer: Joint holders of shares may request the company to enter their names in the register in a certain order, or execute transfers to have their holdings split, with the result that part of the holding is entered showing the name of one holder and part showing the name of other holder. However, the condition of Tarun that only the name of his wife, Tanya, should appear in the register as a member cannot be acceded to, although the names can be entered in the order such that the name of his wife appears first. The reason for this is that the articles of most companies provide that, in the case of exclusion of the other joint holders, and for this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

REGISTER OF SIGNIFICANT BENEFICIAL OWNERS IN A COMPANY [SECTION 90]

As per Section 90 of the Companies Act, 2013, every Significant Beneficial Owner (SBO) is required to disclose the nature of his interest and other particulars within the prescribed period of time to the Company, which in turn will inform the same to the Registrar of Companies. In this connection, MCA has issued the Companies (Significant Beneficial Owners) Rules, 2018, which deal with identification and reporting in connection with SBO.

Definition of Significant Beneficial Owner: Section 90(1) provides that every individual, who acting alone or together, or through one or more persons or trust, including a trust and persons resident outside India, holds beneficial interests, of not less than twenty-five per cent. or such other percentage as may be prescribed, in shares of a company or the right to exercise, or the actual exercising of significant influence or control as defined in clause (27) of section 2, over the company (herein referred to as "significant beneficial owner"), shall make a declaration to the company, specifying the nature of his interest and other particulars, in such manner and within such period of acquisition of the beneficial interest of rights and any change thereof, as may be prescribed.

In terms of Rule 2(1)(h) of the Companies (Significant Beneficial Owners) Rules, 2018, the term 'Significant Beneficial Owner' (SBO) in relation to a reporting entity means and individuals referred to in section 90(1), who:

- i. acting alone or together, or
- ii. through one or more persons or trust, possess one or more of the following rights or entitlements in the Reporting Company (i.e. the company in respect of which SBO declaration is required to be filed):
 - (i) holds indirectly, or together with any direct holdings, not less than 10% of the shares;
 - (ii) holds indirectly, or together with any direct holdings, not less than 10% of the voting rights in the shares;
 - (iii) has the right to receive or participate in not less than 10% of the total distributable dividend, or any other distribution, in a financial year through indirect holdings alone, or together with any direct holdings;
 - (iv) has the right to exercise, or actually exercises, significant influence or control, in any manner other than through direct holdings alone.

In simple terms, SBO is an individual who either alone or together with other individuals or trust, exercises rights or entitlements in the Reporting Company by way of holding 10% shares or 10% voting rights or right to receive 10% or more dividend, both indirect and direct holdings or right taken together or such individual exercises significant influence or control, indirectly or along with direct holding in the Reporting Company. The amended Rules further explain that if an individual does not hold any indirect right or entitlement as mentioned in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, he will not be considered to be a 'significant beneficial owner'.

Significant influence: The term "significant influence" was previously not defined specifically for the rules, and hence, to provide clarity, the following definition has been inserted through SBO rules: "Significant influence" means the power to participate, directly or indirectly, in the financial and operating policy decisions of the reporting company but is not control or joint control of those policies. [Rule 2 (1) (i)]

Majority stake: The Amendment Rules inserted a new term, "Majority Stake," which means:

- (i) holding more than one-half of the equity share capital in the body corporate; or
- (ii) holding more than one-half of the voting rights in the body corporate; or
- (iii) having the right to receive or participate in more than one-half of the distributable dividend or any other distribution by the body corporate. [Rule 2 (1) (d)]

Direct and Indirect shareholding: The Amendment Rules provide that when an individual holds any rights or entitlement directly in the reporting company, the said individual shall not be considered as SBO. An individual will be considered to hold a right or entitlement directly in the Reporting Company, if he satisfies any of the following criteria:

- a. the shares in the Reporting Company representing such right or entitlement are held in the name of such individual;
- b. the individual holds or acquires a beneficial interest in the shares of the Reporting Company under section 89 (2), and has made a declaration in this regard to the Reporting Company.

Indirect shareholding is, when a shareholder is a (a) body corporate; (b) Hindu Undivided Family; (c) Partnership entity; (d) Trust; (e) Pooled investment vehicle.

Onus on the reporting company to identify a SBO and cause him to make declaration: The duty is on the reporting company to identify a SBO and cause such SBO to make a declaration in the prescribed Form.

As per sub-section (5) of section 90 read with the Amendment Rules, every reporting company shall give notice in the Form BEN-4 to any person (whether or not a member of the company) whom the company knows or has reasonable cause to believe:

- (a) to be a significant beneficial owner of the company;
- (b) to be having knowledge of the identity of a significant beneficial owner or another person likely to have such knowledge; or
- (c) to have been a significant beneficial owner of the company at any time during the three years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued, and who is not registered as a significant beneficial owner with the company as required under this section.

Maintenance of Register of SBO and Inspection thereof: According to section 90 (2) and 90 (3) read with Rule 5, every company shall maintain a register of significant beneficial owners in Form No. BEN-3 which shall be open for inspection during business hours, at such reasonable time of not less than two hours, on every working day as the board may decide, by any member of the company on payment of such fee as may be specified by the company but not exceeding fifty rupees for each inspection.

Application to the Tribunal [Section 90 (7)]: The company shall,:

- (a) Where that person fails to give the company, the information required by the notice within the time specified therein. (According to Rule 7 notice shall be given in Form No. BEN-4 for providing information within 30 days of date of notice); or
- (b) Where the information given is not satisfactory, apply to the Tribunal within a period of fifteen days of the expiry of the period specified in the notice, for an order directing that the shares in question be subject to restrictions with regard to transfer of interest, suspension of all rights attached to the shares and such other matters as may be prescribed.

Note: According to Rule 7, the reporting company shall apply to the Tribunal in accordance with section 90 (7), for order directing that the shares in question be subject to restrictions including:

- (i) restrictions on the transfer of interest attached to the shares in question;
- (ii) suspension of the right to receive dividend or any other distribution in relation to the shares in question;
- (iii) suspension of voting rights in relation to the shares in question;
- (iv) any other restriction on all or any of the rights attached with the shares in question.

Section 90 (8) states that on any application made under sub-section (7), the Tribunal may, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the parties concerned, make such order restricting the rights attached with the shares within a period of sixty days of receipt of application or such other period as may be prescribed.

According to section 90 (9), the company or the person aggrieved by the order of the Tribunal may make an application to the Tribunal for relaxation or lifting of the restrictions placed under section 90 (8) within a period of one year from the date of such order.

Provided that if no such application has been filed within a period of one year from the date of the order such shares shall be transferred, without any restrictions, to the authority constituted under sub-section (5) of section 125 (i.e. Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority), in such manner as may be prescribed.

Declaration by SBO under Section 90

As regards declaration of significant beneficial ownership under section 90, Rule 3 of SBO Rules, 2018 states as under:

- (1) Every individual who is a significant beneficial owner (SBO) in a Reporting Company, as on the date of commencement of the Amendment Rules, 2019 (i.e. 8-2-2019), is required to file a declaration in Form No. BEN-1 with the Reporting Company within 90 days from such commencement.

Note: According to Rule 4, the Reporting Company shall be required to file a return in Form No. BEN-2 with the Registrar in respect of such declaration within 30 days of its receipt from the SBO.

- (2) Any individual, who subsequently becomes a significant beneficial owner (SBO) in the Reporting Company or whose significant beneficial ownership undergoes any change, shall be required to file a declaration in Form No.

BEN-1 with the Reporting Company in within 30 days of such acquisition or change.

Explanation: If an individual becomes a significant beneficial owner in the Reporting Company or if his significant beneficial ownership undergoes any change within ninety days of the commencement of the Companies (Significant Beneficial Owners) Amendment Rules, 2019 (i.e. 8-2-2019), it shall be deemed that such individual became the significant beneficial owner or any change therein happened on the date of expiry of ninety days from the date of commencement of said rules, and the period of thirty days for filing will be reckoned accordingly.

Non-Applicability of SBO Rules

Rule 8 of The Companies (Significant Beneficial Owner) Amendment Rules, 2018 states that the 'SBO' Rules shall not be made applicable to the extent the share of the Reporting Company is held by:

take place and was cancelled. The company did not file the annual return for the year ending 31st March 2024, with the jurisdictional Registrar of Companies till date. The directors are of the view that since the Annual General Meeting did not take place, the period of 60 days for filing of annual return is not applicable and thus, there is no contravention of section 92.

Answer: The contention of directors is incorrect if they are of the view that there is no contravention of the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Section 92(4) states that every company has to file an annual return with the RoC within 60 days from the date on which Annual General Meeting is held or where no Annual General Meeting is held in any year, it shall be filed within 60 days from the date on which the Annual General Meeting should have been held, along with the reasons for not holding the AGM.

In the above case, the Annual General Meeting should have been held by 30th September, 2024 but it did not take place for want of quorum. Even if it was not held, Big Fox Entertainment Limited was required to file Annual Return within the specified time along with the reasons for not holding the AGM. By not filing Annual Return, the company has contravened the provisions of Section 92 of the Companies Act, 2013 and therefore, it shall be liable for a penalty as specified in Section 92 (5) of the Act.

4. PRE-REQUISITES OF A MEETING

Before we move on to our next concept of types of meetings and the procedure to convene them as per the Companies Act, 2013, let us understand the terms which are important to know for convening a meeting.

Key terms:

- (a) General Meeting: It is the meeting of the shareholders of a company to be held as per the provisions of the Act. The general meeting can be an Annual General Meeting (AGM) or an Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM). An annual general meeting (AGM) is a mandatory yearly gathering of a company's shareholders. The objective of holding an AGM is to provide an opportunity to members to discuss the functioning of the company and take steps to protect their interests. They can discuss any matter relating to the conduct of the affairs of the company. An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) can be defined as a meeting of shareholders which is not an AGM. The objective of holding an EGM is to discuss any matter of urgent importance which cannot be postponed till the next Annual General Meeting.
- (b) Board Meeting: It is the meeting of the Board of Directors of a company.
- (c) Class Meeting: It is the meeting of particular class of persons, like, creditors, preference shareholders, debenture-holders, etc.

The pre-requisites of the meetings are, in general, applicable to all kinds of meetings, although the time limits may differ and there might be a specific mention of a certain type of meeting in the respective section.

NOTICE OF A MEETING [SECTION 101]

Section 101 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013 states that in order to properly call a general meeting, a notice of at least 21 clear days is required to be given either in writing or through electronic mode in such manner as may be prescribed.

In case of Specified IFSC Public Company - Section 101 shall apply in case of a Specified IFSC public company, unless otherwise specified in the articles of the company. [Notification No. GSR 8 (E), dated 4th January, 2017.]

In case of section 8 company, in clause (1) of Sub-section (1) of Section 101 for the words "21 days", the words "14 days" shall be substituted. This exception shall be applicable to a section 8 company which has not committed a default in filing its financial statements under section 137 or annual return under section 92 with the Registrar. [Notification No. GSR 466 (E), 5-6-2015 as amended by Notification No. GSR 584 (E), dated 13th June, 2017.]

Contents of the Notice [Section 101(2)]

Every notice of a meeting must state the place, date, day and the hour of the meeting and shall contain a statement of business to be transacted at that meeting.

Persons entitled to receive the Notice of the General Meeting [Section 101(3)]

The notice of every meeting of the company shall be given to:

- (a) every member of the company, legal representative of any deceased member or the assignee of insolvent member;
- (b) the auditor or auditors of the company;
- (c) every director of the company.

Notice needs to be served to

- * Members
- * Legal representative of the deceased member
- * Assignee of the insolvent member
- * Auditor/auditors of the company
- * Every director of the company

Meaning of 21 clear days:

The term '21 clear days' means that the date on which notice is served and the date of meeting are excluded while sending the notice of a meeting. A company cannot curtail the requirement of 21 clear days through its Articles of Association.

Note: Where a notice of a meeting is sent by post, it shall be deemed to be served at the expiration of 48 hours after the letter containing the same is posted (Rule 35(6) of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014)

Sending of Notice of Meeting through Electronic Mode:

As per Rule 18 of the Companies (Management & Administration) Rules, 2014, sending of notices through electronic mode has been statutorily recognized. Accordingly, it is permitted for a company to give notice through electronic mode.

The expression “electronic mode” shall mean any communication sent by a company through its authorized and secured computer programme which is capable of producing confirmation and keeping record of such communication addressed to the person entitled to receive such communication at the last electronic mail address provided by the member.

- A notice may be sent through e-mail as a:
 - ◆ Text; or
 - ◆ As an attachment to e-mail; or
 - ◆ As a notification providing electronic link; or
 - ◆ Uniform Resource Locator for accessing such notice.
- Rule 18(3)
 - ◆ The e-mail shall be addressed to the person entitled to receive such e-mail as per the records of the company as provided by the depository.

It is to be noted that the company shall provide an advance opportunity at least once in a financial year, to the member to register his e-mail address and the changes therein and such request may be made by only those members who have not got their e-mail ID recorded or to update a fresh e-mail ID and not from the members whose e-mail ids are already registered.

 - ◆ The subject line in e-mail shall state the name of the company, notice of the type of meeting, place and the date on which the meeting is scheduled.
 - ◆ If notice is sent in the form of a non-editable attachment to e-mail, such attachment shall be in the Portable Document Format or in a non-editable format together with a 'link or instructions' for recipient for downloading relevant version of the software.

- ◆ The company's obligation shall be satisfied when it transmits the e-mail and the company shall not be held responsible for a failure in transmission beyond its control.
- ◆ If a member entitled to receive notice fails to provide or update relevant e-mail address to the company, or to the depository participant as the case may be, the company shall not be in default for not delivering notice via e-mail.
- ◆ The company may send e-mail through in-house facility or its registrar and transfer agent or authorise any third-party agency providing bulk e-mail facility.
- ◆ The notice shall be placed simultaneously on the website of the Company, if any, and on the website as may be notified by Central Government.

Non-receipt of Notice: According to section 101(4) any accidental omission to give notice to or the non-receipt of such notice by, any member or other person who is entitled to such notice for any meeting shall not invalidate the proceedings of the meeting. The onus is on the company to prove that the omission was not deliberate.

Illustration 4

Mr. Abhinav, a member of Elixir Logistics Limited, filed a complaint against the company for not serving him a notice for attending the Annual General Meeting. The company, in turn, provided the proof that they had sent the notice, by way of an email to Mr. Abhinav, inviting him to attend the annual general meeting of the company. Mr. Abhinav alleges that he never received the email. State whether the company is liable to be guilty for contravening the provisions of section 101 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the applicable Rules.

Answer: As per Rule 18 (3) (v) of the Companies (Management & Administration) Rules, 2014, the company's obligation shall be satisfied when it transmits the e-mail and the company shall not be held responsible for a failure in transmission beyond its control. Also, Rule 18 (3) (vi) if a member entitled to receive the notice fails to provide or update relevant e-mail address to the company, or to the depository participant as the case may be, the company shall not be in default for not delivering notice via e-mail. Accordingly, Elixir Logistics Limited shall not be held guilty if there was a failure in transmission beyond its control or in case where Mr. Abhinav did not update his e-mail address.

Shorter notice of less than 21 days [Proviso to Section 101 (1)]

As noted earlier, usually general meetings need to be called by giving at least a notice of 21 clear days.

However, a general meeting may be called after giving shorter notice than that specified in sub-section (1) of Section 101, if consent, in writing or by electronic mode, is accorded thereto:

- (i) in the case of an annual general meeting, by not less than ninety-five per cent. of the members entitled to vote thereat; and
- (ii) in the case of any other general meeting, by members of the company—
 - (a) holding, if the company has a share capital, majority in number of members entitled to vote and who represent not less than ninety-five per cent. of such part of the paid-up share capital of the company as gives a right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (b) having, if the company has no share capital, not less than ninety-five per cent. of the total voting power exercisable at that meeting.

Where any member of a company is entitled to vote only on some resolution or resolutions to be moved at a meeting and not on the others, those members shall be taken into account for the purposes of sub section (1) of section 101 in respect of the former resolution or resolutions and not in respect of the latter.

Illustration 5

The paid-up share capital of Aakash Soaps Limited is ₹ fifty lakh divided into five lakh shares of ₹10 each. The directors of the company are desirous of calling an extra-ordinary general meeting (EGM) by giving a shorter notice which is less than 21 days. Sixty percent of the members holding shares worth ₹ forty lakh accorded their consent by electronic mode to the shorter notice. Whether EGM can be validly called.

Answer: In the above case, consent to call the EGM by shorter notice has been accorded by sixty percent members holding shares worth ₹ forty lakh which works out to 80% ($40,00,000/50,00,000 *100$) whereas the requirement is that majority in number of members who represent not less than 95% of paid-up share capital which gives them a right to vote at the meeting (i.e. shareholders holding shares worth ₹ 47,50,000) must consent to shorter notice. Therefore, the EGM cannot be validly called and held.

Authority to call a General Meeting

A general meeting (AGM or EGM) has to be called by the Board of Directors. An individual director does not have the authority to call a General Meeting. Any notice of General Meeting given without the sanction of the Board is invalid; however, the same can be ratified by the Board. For calling a General Meeting, the Board passes a Board Resolution.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT TO BE ANNEXED TO NOTICE [SECTION 102]⁶

Section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013 mentions that where any special business is to be transacted at the company's general meeting, then an 'Explanatory Statement' shall be annexed to the notice calling such general meeting. The 'Explanatory Statement' must specify,

- (a) the nature of concern or interest, financial or otherwise, if any, in respect of each items of—
 - (i) every director and the manager, if any;
 - (ii) every other key managerial personnel; and
 - (iii) relatives of the persons mentioned in sub-clauses (i) and (ii);
- (b) any other information and facts that may enable members to understand the meaning, scope and implications of the items of business and to take decision thereon.

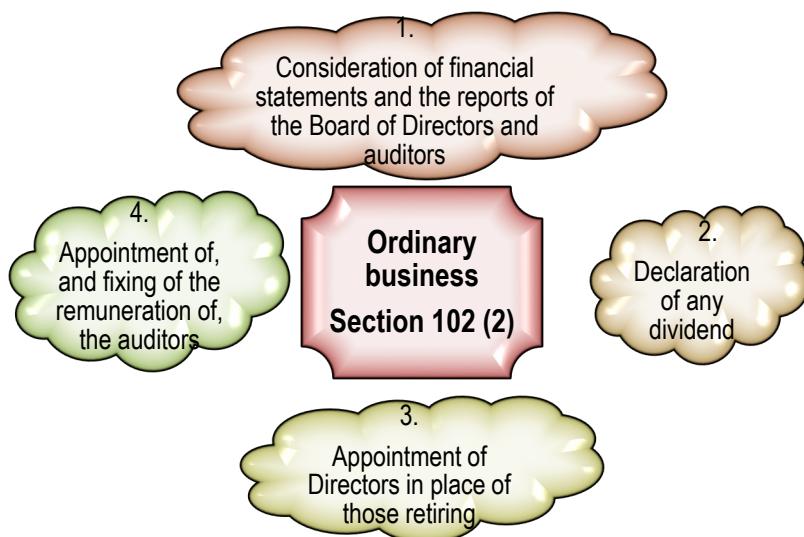

Ordinary business and Special business: Companies Act, 2013 sets out two types of businesses as under:

⁶ In case of Specified IFSC Public Company - Section 102 shall apply in case of a Specified IFSC public company, unless otherwise specified in the articles of the company. Notification GSR 8 (E), Dated 4th January, 2017.

- Ordinary business (OB)
- Special business. (SB)

Ordinary business includes the following business which are transacted at the Annual General Meeting of a company—

- (ii) the declaration of any dividend;
- (iii) the appointment of directors in place of those retiring;
- (iv) the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

- In the case of AGM, all business to be transacted thereat except the ones stated above are special business. At the EGM, every business transacted is a special business. Explanatory statement is not required for transacting Ordinary Business.
- Proviso to section 102 (2) sets out that if any item of special business relates to, or affects, any other company, the extent of shareholding in that other company of every promoter, director, manager and of every other KMP shall be disclosed, if the extent of shareholding is 2% or more of the paid-up share capital of that other company.
- In case any item of business refers to any document which is to be considered at the meeting, then the time and place where such document can be inspected should also be specified in the explanatory statement.

- Effect of non-disclosure/insufficient disclosure in Explanatory Statement [Section 102(4)]: If as a result of non-disclosure or insufficient disclosure in explanatory statement, any benefit accrues to a promoter, director, manager, other key managerial personnel or their relatives, such person shall hold such benefit in trust for the company, and shall, without prejudice to any other action being taken against him under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, be liable to compensate the company to the extent of the benefit received by him.

Penalty for contravention of the provisions of section 102

Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (4), if any default is made in complying with the provisions of this section, every promoter, director, manager or other key managerial personnel of the company who is in default shall be liable to a penalty of fifty thousand rupees or five times the amount of benefit accruing to the promoter, director, manager or other key managerial personnel or any of his relatives, whichever is higher. [Section 102 (5)]

QUORUM FOR MEETINGS [SECTION 103]⁷

Quorum means the minimum number of members who must be personally present in order to constitute a valid meeting. Section 103 of the Companies Act, 2013 states that unless the articles of the company provide for a larger number, the quorum for the meeting shall be as follows—

Public Company -

- If number of members is not more than 1000, quorum shall be 5 members personally present.
- if the number of members is more than 1000 but upto 5000, then the quorum shall be 15 members personally present
- If the number of members exceed 5000, then quorum shall be 30 members personally present.

Private Company -

- Two members personally present shall be the Quorum.

⁷ In case of Specified IFSC Public Company - Section 103 shall apply in case of a Specified IFSC public company, unless otherwise specified in the articles of the company. Notification No. GSR 8 (E), Date 4th January, 2017.

- It is to be noted that the term 'members personally present' as mentioned above refers to the members entitled to vote in respect of the items of business on the agenda of the meeting.

Adjournment of Meeting for want of Quorum [Section 103 (2) and (3)]

If the quorum is not present within half-an-hour from the time appointed for holding a meeting of the company:

- (a) the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other date and such other time and place as the Board may determine; or
- (b) the meeting, if called by requisitionists under section 100, shall stand cancelled:

Provided that in case of an adjourned meeting or of a change of day, time or place of meeting under clause (a), the company shall give not less than three days' notice to the members either individually or by publishing an advertisement in the newspapers (one in English and one in vernacular language) which is in circulation at the place where the registered office of the company is situated.

Quorum not present at the adjourned meeting also: Where quorum is not present in the adjourned meeting also within half an hour, then the members present shall form the quorum.

Note:

The following points have been prescribed by Secretarial Standard– 2:

1. One person can be an authorised representative of more than one body corporate. In such a case, he is treated as more than one Member present in person for the purpose of Quorum. However, to constitute a meeting, at least two individuals shall be present in person. Thus, in case of a public company having not more than one thousand members with a Quorum requirement of five members, an authorised representative of five bodies corporate cannot form a Quorum by himself but can do so if at least one more member is personally present.
2. Quorum shall be present not only at the time of commencement of the Meeting but also while transacting business.

[Section 105(5)]

6. VOTING [SECTION 106-109]

The votes cast by the shareholders play decisive role in the business proposed in General Meetings of a company.

An equity shareholder has the right to vote for every motion. However, as per the Section 47 of the Companies Act, 2013 preference shareholder is entitled to vote only for a resolution pertaining to his rights.

The various modes through which a shareholder can cast his vote are as follows:

- ◆ Voting by show of hands – (section 107);
- ◆ Voting by electronic means – (section 108);
- ◆ Voting by demand of poll – (section 109);
- ◆ Voting by Postal Ballot – (section 110).

The right to vote is a personal right of a shareholder and he may use it as he likes it. He may split his vote for and against the resolution.

RESTRICTION ON VOTING RIGHTS [SECTION – 106]¹⁰

Section 106 (1) indicates the supremacy of Articles of Association and specifies that the Articles of a company may provide that:

- no member shall exercise any voting right in respect of any share registered in his name on which any amount is due from him on calls or any other sums presently payable by him to the company have not been paid, or
- in regard to which the company has exercised any right of lien.

Section 106 (2) requires that a company shall not prohibit any member from exercising his voting rights on any other ground except the grounds mentioned as above.

On a poll taken at a meeting of a company, a member entitled to more than one vote, or his proxy, where allowed, or other person entitled to vote for him, as the case may be, need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he uses. [Section 106 (3)]

In other words, on a poll being taken at a meeting of a company, a member having more than one vote or his proxy, need not use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he uses.

Also, such member cannot sign a requisition for an extra-ordinary general meeting.

In case of joint shareholders, they must concur in voting unless the articles provide to the contrary. Regulation 52 of Table F states as under:

- (i) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.
- (ii) For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

¹⁰ In case of Specified IFSC Public Company - Section 106 shall apply in case of a Specified IFSC public company, unless otherwise specified in the articles of the company. Notification No. GSR 8(E), Dated 4th January, 2017.

Note:

Where the articles of the company do not contain any provision restricting the exercise of voting rights of members, then a member cannot be prevented from voting, even though, calls or other sums payable by him have not been paid or the company has exercised any right of lien over his shares. But, where the articles contain any such provision, and the shares forfeited for non-payment of calls have been re-allotted, the new allottee being liable for the balance, if any, remaining unpaid on the shares would not be entitled to vote so long as any calls presently payable on the shares remain unpaid.

Suppose Mr. Subramaniam and Mrs. Sneha are joint shareholders of Sports Equipment Private Limited holding 500 equity shares. In respect of a particular special business being transacted at the extra-ordinary general meeting (EGM) of the company, Mr. Subramaniam is in favour of passing the resolution whereas Mrs. Sneha does not favour the resolution. Decide how should the vote be casted in case such a situation arises?

Answer:

The voting in case of joint shareholders is done in the order of seniority, which is determined on the basis of the order in which their names appear in the register of members. The joint-holders have a right to instruct the company as to the order in which their names shall appear in the register of members. Accordingly, in case of Mr. Subramaniam and Mrs. Sneha, it is to be seen as to whose name appears first in the register of members; and then to decide whether the vote is casted in favour of resolution or against it.

Consider a situation where directors are also the shareholders of the company.

Answer:

Directors, who are also the shareholders of the company, stand in a fiduciary relationship with the company in their capacity as directors. However, a director shall vote in the same manner as a common shareholder would have voted in a general meeting. Therefore, while casting his vote, he is not supposed to be influenced by the fact that he is one of the directors of the company.

VOTING BY SHOW OF HANDS [SECTION 107]¹¹

- According to section 107 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013, unless the voting is demanded by way of poll or by electronic means, the voting shall be done by way of show of hands in the first instance.
- Section 107(2) states that the declaration by the Chairman of the meeting of the passing of a resolution or otherwise by show of hands and an entry to that effect in the minutes books shall be conclusive evidence that the resolution has been passed.

Can an insolvent shareholder vote at the general meeting by show of hands?

Answer: Yes. Notwithstanding that he has no longer any beneficial interest in the shares and the dividends are payable only to his trustee in bankruptcy, an insolvent shareholder so long as he remains in the register of the company as a member, is entitled to exercise his votes which are attributed to his status as a member.

POSTAL BALLOT [SECTION 110]

Section 2(65) defines the term "postal ballot" to mean voting by post or through any electronic mode.

The provisions relating to passing of resolutions by means of 'postal ballot' are contained in Section 110.

Further, Rule 22 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 contains the provisions relating to procedure to be followed for conducting business through postal ballot.

Extract of Section 110 of the Companies Act, 2013

- "(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a company:
- (a) shall, in respect of such items of business as the Central Government may, by notification, declare to be transacted only by means of postal ballot; and
 - (b) may, in respect of any item of business, other than ordinary business and any business in respect of which directors or auditors have a right to be heard at any meeting, transact by means of postal ballot, in such manner as may be prescribed, instead of transacting such business at a general meeting.

Provided that any item of business required to be transacted by means of postal ballot under clause (a), may be transacted at a general meeting by a company which is required to provide the facility to members to vote by electronic means under section 108, in the manner provided in that section.

- (2) If a resolution is assented to by the requisite majority of the shareholders by means of postal ballot, it shall be deemed to have been duly passed at a general meeting convened in that behalf."
- Section 110 seeks to provide that the Central Government may declare certain items of business that can be transacted only by postal ballot. In addition, in respect of any other item of business (except ordinary business and any business in respect of which directors or auditors have a right to be heard at any meeting) postal ballot may be used.

 - Manner in which postal ballot shall be conducted is prescribed in Rule 22 of the Companies (Management & Administration) Rules, 2014. The same is described as under:
 - ◆ Where a company is required or decides to pass any resolution by way of postal ballot, it shall send a notice to all the shareholders, along with a draft resolution explaining the reasons therefor and requesting them to send their assent or dissent in writing on a postal ballot because postal ballot means voting by post or through electronic means within a period of thirty days from the date of dispatch of the notice.

- ◆ The notice shall be sent either:
 - (a) by Registered Post or speed post, or
 - (b) through electronic means like registered e-mail id or

- ◆ An advertisement shall be published at least once in a vernacular newspaper in the principal vernacular language of the district in which the registered office of the company is situated, and having a wide circulation in that district, and at least once in English language in an English newspaper having a wide circulation in that district, about having dispatched the ballot papers and specifying therein, inter alia, the following matters, namely:-
 - (a) a statement to the effect that the business is to be transacted by postal ballot which includes voting by electronic means;

 - (f) a statement to the effect that members, who have not received postal ballot forms may apply to the company and obtain a duplicate thereof; and

- (g) contact details of the person responsible to address the grievances connected with the voting by postal ballot including voting by electronic means.
- ◆ The notice of the postal ballot shall also be placed on the website of the company forthwith after the notice is sent to the members and such notice shall remain on such website till the last date for receipt of the postal ballots from the members.
 - ◆ The Board of directors shall appoint one scrutinizer, who is not in employment of the company and who, in the opinion of the Board can conduct the postal ballot voting process in a fair and transparent manner.
 - ◆ The scrutinizer shall be willing to be appointed and be available for the purpose of ascertaining the requisite majority.
 - ◆ Postal ballot received back from the shareholders shall be kept in the safe custody of the scrutinizer and after the receipt of assent or dissent of the shareholder in writing on a postal ballot, no person shall deface or destroy the ballot paper or declare the identity of the shareholder.
 - ◆ The scrutinizer shall submit his report as soon as possible after the last date of receipt of postal ballots but not later than seven days thereof.
 - ◆ The scrutinizer shall maintain a register either manually or electronically to record their assent or dissent received, mentioning the particulars of name, address, folio number or client ID of the shareholder, number of shares held by them, nominal value of such shares, whether the shares have differential voting rights, if any, details of postal ballots which are received in defaced or mutilated form and postal ballot forms which are invalid.
 - ◆ The postal ballot and all other papers relating to postal ballot including voting by electronic means, shall be under the safe custody of the scrutinizer till the Chairman considers, approves and signs the minutes and thereafter, the scrutinizer shall return the ballot papers and other related papers or register to the company who shall preserve such ballot papers and other related papers or register safely.

- ◆ The assent or dissent received after thirty days from the date of issue of notice shall be treated as if reply from the member has not been received.
- ◆ The results shall be declared by placing it, along with the scrutinizer's report, on the website of the company.
- ◆ The provisions of rule 20 regarding voting by electronic means shall apply, as far as applicable, mutatis mutandis to this rule in respect of the voting by electronic means.
- ◆ pursuant to clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 110, the following items of business shall be transacted only by means of voting through a postal ballot—
 - (a) alteration of the objects clause of the memorandum and in the case of the company in existence immediately before the commencement of the Act, alteration of the main objects of the memorandum;
 - (b) alteration of articles of association in relation to insertion or removal of provisions which, under sub-section (68) of section 2, are required to be included in the articles of a company in order to constitute it a private company;
 - (c) change in place of registered office outside the local limits of any city, town or village as specified in sub-section (5) of section 12;

 - (e) issue of shares with differential rights as to voting or dividend or otherwise under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of section 43;
 - (f) variation in the rights attached to a class of shares or debentures or other securities as specified under section 48;

- (j) giving loans or extending guarantee or providing security in excess of the limit specified under sub-section (3) of section 186:

Provided that any aforesaid items of business under this sub-rule, required to be transacted by means of postal ballot, may be transacted at a general meeting by a company which is required to provide the facility to members to vote by electronic means under section 108, in the manner provided in that section.

Provided further that One Person Companies and other companies having members upto two hundred are not required to transact any business through postal ballot.

How does the counting happen at the time of postal ballot?

It is important to know here that, a member who is voting by way of postal ballot, has votes in proportion to his share in the paid-up share capital of the company. And in this regard, he need not use all his votes in the same way. Therefore, following types of postal ballots may be received from the shareholders–

- (i) Ballots which contain assents;
- (ii) Ballots which contain dissents;
- (iii) Ballots wherein the member has voted partially assenting, partially dissenting or using not all his shares in any particular way; and
- (iv) Invalid ballots (due to absence/mismatch of signature, overwriting, etc.)

The postal ballots shall be segregated as per the above criteria and resolution shall be deemed as passed if assents are greater in number.

7. CIRCULATION OF MEMBERS' RESOLUTIONS [SECTION 111]

Circulation of members' resolution and statements: While the board enjoys the primacy in setting the agenda of the meetings, the members are given a right under section 111 to propose resolutions for consideration at the general meetings. The number of members required to make a requisition under sub-section (1) of this section are as required to requisition a general meeting in sub-section (2) of section 100.

(1) Prerequisites of a valid Requisition: The prerequisites for a valid requisition prescribed in sub-section (2) of section 111 are as under:

- (a) Requisition must be made in writing and signed
 - (i) in the case of a company having a share capital, such number of members who hold, on the date of the receipt of the requisition, not less than one-tenth of such of the paid-up share capital of the company as on that date carries the right of voting;
 - (ii) in the case of a company not having a share capital, such number of members who have, on the date of receipt of the requisition, not less than one-tenth of the total voting power of all the members having on the said date a right to vote.
- (b) Two or more copies of the said requisition are required to contain signatures of all the requisitionists.
- (c) The requisition must be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than six weeks before the meeting in the case of a requisition requiring notice of a resolution. In case of other resolutions, the same is to be deposited not less than two weeks before the meeting.
- (d) A sum reasonably sufficient to meet the company's expenses in giving effect to proposing the resolution is deposited or tendered. When the money is tendered, no payment is made but an unconditional offer is made to pay money.

The proviso to sub-section (2) of section 111 provides that the time period provided above need not be complied with in case an annual general meeting is called on a date within six weeks after the copy has been deposited. The copy of requisition, in such a case, shall be deemed to have been properly deposited for the purposes thereof although not deposited within the time required by this sub-section. The company is not duty bound to circulate the notice of the resolution when the prerequisites are not complied with.

- (2) Notice to members: As per section 111 of the Companies Act, 2013, a company shall, on requisition in writing of such number of members, as required in section 100 (calling of EGM), give notice to members of any resolution which may properly be moved and is intended to be moved at a meeting; and circulate to members any statement with respect to the matters referred to in proposed resolution or business to be dealt with at that meeting.
- (3) Exemption from circulation of any statement: The company shall not be bound to circulate any statement, if on the application either on behalf of the company or of any other person who claims to be aggrieved, the ¹³Central Government, by order, declares that the rights conferred are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter.
- (4) Order to bear the cost: An order made as above by the Central Government may also direct that the cost incurred by the company shall be paid to the company by the requisitionists, notwithstanding that they are not parties to the application.
- (5) Default in complying with the provisions: If any default is made in complying with the provisions of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees.

8. REPRESENTATION OF THE PRESIDENT & GOVERNORS IN MEETING OF COMPANIES TO WHICH THEY ARE MEMBER [SECTION 112]

Section 112 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that the President of India or the Governor of a State, if he is a member of a company, may appoint such person as he thinks fit to act as his representative at any meeting and such other person shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers including the right to vote by proxy and postal ballot, as the President or, as the case may be, the Governor could exercise as a member of the company.

9. REPRESENTATIONS OF CORPORATIONS MEETING OF COMPANIES AND CREDITORS [SECTION 113]

Section 113 of the Companies Act, 2013 seeks to provide that where a body corporate is a member or a creditor including a holder of debentures of the company and it authorises any person as its representative at any meeting of the company or any class of members of the company or at any meeting of creditors of the company, such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers including right to vote by proxy and by postal ballot on behalf of the body corporate which he represents.

10. RESOLUTIONS [SECTION 114–117]

In lay man's language, a resolution is the formal decision of an organization while transacting a business at a meeting. A motion which has obtained the necessary majority vote in its favour becomes a resolution. When a resolution is passed, a company is bound by it.

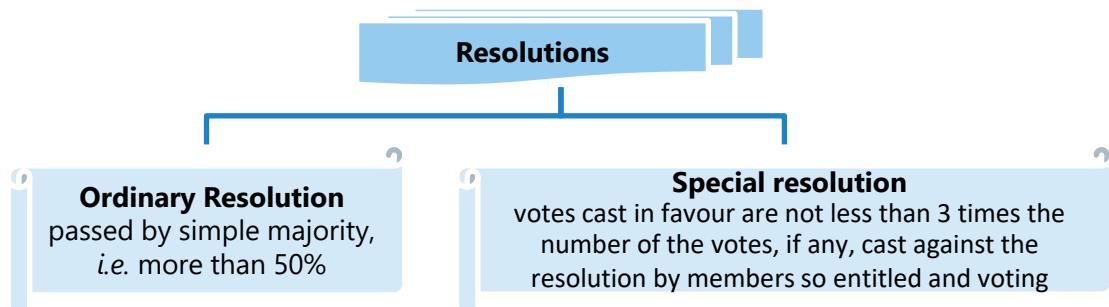

Difference between Motion and Resolution

- Most matters come before a meeting by way of a motion recommending that the meeting may express approval or disapproval or take certain action or order something to be done.
- A motion is a proposal, and a resolution is the adoption of a motion duly made and seconded. But every motion need not be followed by a resolution, e.g. where a motion is made for the adjournment of the meeting.
- A motion whether it is passed for the closure of discussion or adjournment, etc. can be passed by an ordinary resolution unless there is a specific provision in the articles.

ORDINARY AND SPECIAL RESOLUTION [SECTION 114]

As per the Companies Act, 2013, resolutions are of two types—

- Ordinary Resolutions – which are passed by simple majority; and
- Special Resolutions – votes cast in favour are not less than 3 times the number of the votes, if any, cast against the resolution by members so entitled and voting

Section 114 of the Companies Act, 2013 states as to what constitutes an Ordinary Resolution and a Special Resolution.

Ordinary Resolution

Section 114(1) states that a resolution shall be ordinary resolution, if the notice required under this Act has been duly given and it is required to be passed by the votes cast, whether on a show of hands, or electronically or on a poll, as the case may be, in favour of the resolution, including the casting vote, if any, of the Chairman, by members, who, being entitled so to do, vote in person, or where proxies are allowed, by proxy or by postal ballot, exceed the votes, if any cast against the resolution by members, so entitled and voting.

Simply put, the votes cast in the favour of the resolution by any mode of voting should exceed the votes cast against it.

Special Resolution

As per Section 114(2) of the Act, a resolution shall be a special resolution, when—

- (a) The intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution has been duly specified in the notice calling the general meeting or other intimation given to the members of the resolution;
- (b) The notice required under this Act has been duly given; and

- (c) The votes cast in favour of the resolution, whether on a show of hands, or electronically or on a poll, as the case may be, by members who, being entitled so to do, vote in person or by proxy or by postal ballot, are required to be not less than 3 times the number of the votes, if any, cast against the resolution by members so entitled and voting.

Characteristics of Special Resolution

-  1. Specified Majority - 3 times of the number of votes cast against
-  2. Resolution shall be set out in the notice
-  3. Proper notice of 21 days is given for holding the general meeting
-  4. Explanatory Statement should be annexed to the notice for conducting special business

Illustration 11

The Annual General Meeting of Super Star Bakers Limited was attended by 60 members. In respect of a particular business, the resolution was to be passed as a special resolution. Ten members voted against the resolution whereas five abstained themselves from the voting. The Chairman of the meeting Mr. Ravinder declared that the resolution was passed as a special resolution. Whether the declaration is valid.

Answer: In case of a special resolution, the requirement is that the votes cast in favour of the resolution must be three times the number of the votes cast against it. In the above case, ten members voted against the resolution which implies that minimum thirty members (three times of ten) must vote in favour of the resolution. Ignoring five members who abstained themselves from voting, forty-five members (sixty minus ten minus five) voted in favour of the resolution which far exceeds the required majority of thirty members. Therefore, declaration by Mr. Ravinder, Chairman of the meeting, that the resolution was passed as a special resolution is valid.

Illustration 12

In the annual general meeting of Steel Products Limited, the notice contained the agenda for 8 special businesses to be transacted. The Chairman decided to move all the resolutions at one time in order to save time of the members present at the meeting. Discuss whether two or more resolutions can be moved together as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013.

Answer: For the sake of avoiding confusion and mixing up, the resolutions are moved separately. However, there is nothing illegal if the Chairman of the meeting decides that two or more resolutions should be moved together, unless any member requires that each resolution should be put to vote separately or unless a poll is demanded in respect of any.

The only case where a resolution should be moved separately is the one which requires that as regards the appointment of directors at a general meeting of a public or private company, where two or more directors may not be appointed as directors by a single resolution.

Where notice has been given of several resolutions, each resolution must be put separately. However, if the meeting unanimously adopts all the resolutions, this would be immaterial.

RESOLUTIONS REQUIRING SPECIAL NOTICE [SECTION 115]

Section 115 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with rule 23 of Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 deals with resolutions requiring special notice

According to Section 115 where, by any provision contained in this Act or in the Articles of a company, special notice is required for passing any resolution, then the notice of the intention to move such resolution shall be given to the company by such number of members holding not less than 1% of the total voting power, or holding shares on which such aggregate sum not exceeding five lakh rupees, as may be prescribed, has been paid-up.

Special notice for passing a resolution is required in the following cases

- (a) Resolution for appointment of an auditor other than the retiring auditor at an annual general meeting. [Section 140 (4)]

- (b) Resolution at an annual general meeting providing expressly that a retiring auditor shall not be re-appointed. [Section 140 (4)]
- (c) Resolution to remove a director before the expiry of his period of office. [Section 169 (2)]
- (d) Resolution to appoint another person as director in place of the removed director at the meeting at which he is removed. [(Section 169 (2))]

Further, the articles may provide for certain additional matters which require special notice.

Rule 23 specifies the procedure to be followed in respect of Special Notice as under:

1. A special notice required to be given to the company shall be signed, either individually or collectively by such number of members holding not less than one percent of total voting power or holding shares on which an aggregate sum of not less than 5,00,000 rupees has been paid up on the date of the notice.
2. The afore-mentioned notice shall be sent by members to the company not earlier than 3 months but at least 14 days before the date of meeting at which the resolution is to be moved, exclusive of the day on which the notice is given and the day of the meeting.
3. The company shall immediately after receipt of the notice, give its members notice of the resolution at least seven days before the meeting, exclusive of the day of dispatch of notice and day of the meeting, in the same manner as it gives notice of any general meetings.
4. Where it is not practicable to give the notice in the same manner as it gives notice of any general meetings, the notice shall be published in English language in English newspaper and in vernacular language in a vernacular newspaper, both having wide circulation in the State where the registered office of the Company is situated and such notice shall also be posted on the website, if any, of the Company.
5. The notice shall be published at least seven days before the meeting, exclusive of the day of publication of the notice and day of the meeting.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED AT ADJOURNED MEETING [SECTION 116]

As per Section 116 of the Companies act, 2013, where a resolution is passed at an adjourned meeting of:

- (a) a company; or
- (b) the holders of any class of shares in a company; or
- (c) the Board of Directors of a company, the resolution shall be treated as having been passed on the day on which it was actually passed and not on any earlier date.

According to section 116 of the Companies Act, 2013, the said two resolutions shall be deemed to have been passed on the adjourned date of meeting, i.e. Thursday, 8th August, 2024 and not on the earlier date.

The members of Blumove Peacocks Appliances Private Limited, holding more than 1/10th voting power of the company, requisitioned the Board of Directors to call a general meeting on 14th July, 2024. However, the directors did not pay any heed to such a requisition and therefore, no general meeting was called. Discuss the consequences of the contravention of not calling a general meeting on the requisition of required number of members in accordance with the Companies Act, 2013.

Answer: In the above case, the requisition for calling a general meeting is made by the sufficient number of requisitionists and therefore, the Board Directors is required to initiate the process of calling the meeting. According to section 100 (4), if the Board does not, within 21 days from the date of receipt of a valid requisition, proceed to call a meeting within 45 days from the date of receipt of such requisition, then the requisitionists may themselves call and hold the meeting. This can be done within a period of three months from the date of the requisition. According to section 100 (5), a meeting by the requisitionists shall be called and held in the same manner in which the meeting is called and held by the Board of Directors.

Accordingly, the requisitionists being members of Blumove Peacocks Appliances Private Limited can call and hold the general meeting within a period of three months from the date of the requisition since the Board was not inclined to call such a meeting within the stipulated time after the requisition was made.

Illustration 16

The Board of Directors of Vishnu Orchards Limited, a company having its registered office in New Delhi, did not proceed to call a meeting despite receipt of a requisition from the required number of requisitionists. In view of this, requisitionists themselves decided to call the meeting to be held in Madrid, Spain on 2nd October, 2024. Discuss whether the general meeting can be convened on the said date and place.

Keeping in view the facts of the above case, the meeting cannot be convened as proposed to be held by the requisitionists. As per Rule 17 (2) of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014, the requisitionists should hold the meeting at the registered office of the company or in the same city or town in which the registered office is situated. In addition, the day of holding the meeting should be a working day and not a National Holiday. It is to be noted that 2nd October, 2024 is a National Holiday.

Answer to Descriptive Questions

- Under Section 118 (5) of the Companies Act, 2013, there shall not be included in the Minutes of a meeting, any matter which, in the opinion of the Chairman of the meeting:
 - is or could reasonably be regarded as defamatory of any person;
 - is irrelevant or immaterial to the proceeding; or
 - is detrimental to the interests of the company;

Further, under section 118(6) the chairman shall exercise absolute discretion in regard to the inclusion or non-inclusion of any matter in the Minutes on the grounds specified in sub-section (5) of section 118.

Hence, in view of the above, the contention of Mukesh, a shareholder of Alpha Limited is not valid because the Chairman has absolute discretion on the inclusion or exclusion of any matter in the minutes for aforesaid reasons.

- A Proxy is an instrument in writing executed by a shareholder authorizing another person to attend a meeting and to vote thereat on his behalf in his absence. As per the provisions of section 105 of the Companies Act, 2013, every shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote has a statutory right to appoint another person as his proxy. It is not necessary that the proxy be a member of the company. Further, any provision in the articles of association of the company requiring instrument of proxy to be lodged with the company more than 48 hours before a meeting shall have effect as if 48 hours had been specified therein. The members have a right to revoke the proxy's authority by voting himself before the proxy has voted but once the proxy has voted the member cannot retract his authority.

Where two proxy instruments by the same shareholder are lodged in such a manner that one is lodged before and the other after the expiry of the date fixed for lodging proxies, the former will be counted.

Thus, in case of member X, the proxy Y will be permitted to vote on his behalf as form for appointing proxy was submitted within the permissible time.

However, in the case of Member W, the proxy M (and not Proxy N) would be permitted to vote as the proxy authorizing N to vote was deposited in less than 48 hours before the meeting.

3. Under section 102 (2) (b) of the Companies Act, 2013, in the case of any meeting other than an Annual General Meeting, all business transacted thereat shall be deemed to be special business.

Further under section 102 (1) a statement setting out the following material facts concerning each item of special business to be transacted at a general meeting, shall be annexed to the notice calling such meeting:

- (a) the nature of concern or interest, financial or otherwise, if any, in respect of each items, of every director and the manager, if any or every other key managerial personnel and relatives of such persons; and
- (b) any other information and facts that may enable members to understand the meaning, scope and implications of the items of business and to take decision thereon.

Thus, the objection of the member is valid since the complete details about the issue of sweat equity were required to be sent with the notice of meeting. The notice is, therefore, cannot be said to be a valid one when the provisions of Section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013 are considered.

4. (i) Maintenance of the Register of Members etc.: As per section 94(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, the registers required to be kept and maintained by a company under section 88 and copies of the annual return filed under section 92 shall be kept at the registered office of the company:

Provided that such registers or copies of return may also be kept at any other place in India in which more than one-tenth of the total number of members entered in the register of members reside, if approved by a special resolution passed at a general meeting of the company.

So, Tulip Ltd. can also keep the registers and returns at Kolkata after compliance with the above provisions, provided more than one-tenth of the total number of members entered in the register of members reside in Kolkata.

- (ii) As per section 94(2) of the Companies Act, the registers and their indices, except when they are closed under the provisions of this Act, and the copies of all the returns shall be open for inspection by any member, debenture-holder, other security holder or beneficial owner, during business hours without payment of any fees and by any other person on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

Accordingly, a director Mr. Rich, who is a shareholder of the company, has a right to inspect the Register of Members during business hours without payment of any fees, as per the provisions of this section.

5. According to section 100 (2) of the Companies Act 2013, the Board of directors must convene a general meeting upon requisition made by the stipulated minimum number of members.

As per Section 103 (2) (b) of the Companies Act, 2013, if the quorum is not present within half an hour from the appointed time for holding a meeting of the company, the meeting, if called on the requisition of members, shall stand cancelled. Therefore, the meeting stands cancelled and the stand taken by the Board of Directors to adjourn it, is not proper and valid.

6. Under section 102 (2) (b) of the Companies Act, 2013, in the case of any general meeting other than an AGM, all business transacted thereat shall be deemed to be special business.

Further under section 102 (1), a statement setting out the following material facts concerning each item of special business to be transacted at a general meeting, shall be annexed to the notice calling such meeting, namely:—

- (a) the nature of concern or interest, financial or otherwise, if any, in respect of each items, of:
 - (i) every director and the manager, if any;
 - (ii) every other key managerial personnel; and
 - (iii) relatives of the persons mentioned in sub-clauses (i) and (ii);
- (b) any other information and facts that may enable members to understand the meaning, scope and implications of the items of business and to take decision thereon.

Thus, the objection of the shareholder is valid since the details of the item to be considered at the general meeting are not fully disclosed. The information about the amount is a material fact with reference to the proposed increase of share capital. The notice is, therefore, not a valid notice considering the provisions of section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013.

7. Section 109 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides for the demand of poll before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on show of hands.

Accordingly, section 109 (1) lays down as under:

Before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on show of hands, a poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of the meeting on his own motion, and shall be ordered to be taken by him on a demand made in that behalf:-

- (a) In the case of a company having a share capital, by the members present in person or by proxy, where allowed, and having not less than one-tenth of the total voting power or holding shares on which an aggregate sum of not less than five lakh rupees or such higher amount as may be prescribed has been paid-up; and

- (b) in the case of any other company, by any member or members present in person or by proxy, where allowed, and having not less than one tenth of the total voting power.

Withdrawal of the demand for poll: According to section 109 (2), the demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the persons who made the demand.

Hence, on the basis on the above provisions of the Companies Act, 2013:

- (i) The chairman cannot reject the demand for poll subject to the provisions contained in the articles of company.
 - (ii) The chairman cannot reject the request of the members for withdrawal of the demand for poll.
8. Under section 105 (8) of the Companies Act, 2013 every member entitled to vote at a meeting of the company, or on any resolution to be moved thereat, shall be entitled during the period beginning twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting and ending with the conclusion of the meeting, to inspect the proxies lodged, at any time during the business hours of the company, provided not less than three days' notice in writing of the intention so to inspect is given to the company.

In the given case, Surya has given a proper notice. Therefore, validity of notice cannot be denied.

However, such inspection can be undertaken only during the period beginning 24 hours before the time fixed for the commencement of the meeting and ending with the conclusion of the meeting.

In view of above provision, Surya can undertake the inspection only during the above-mentioned period and not two days prior to the meeting.

9. Rule 8 of the Companies (Significant Beneficial Owners) Rules, 2018²⁴ states that the 'SBO' Rules shall not be made applicable to the extent the shares of the Reporting Company are held by following entities:
- (a) the Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority [constituted under section 125 (5)];
 - (b) its holding reporting company provided that the details of such holding reporting company shall be reported in Form No. BEN-2;
 - (c) the Central Government, State Government or any local authority;
 - (d) (i) a reporting company; or
 - (ii) a body corporate; or
 - (iii) an entity,
- controlled wholly or partly by the Central Government and/ or State Government(s);
- (e) Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) registered Investment Vehicles such as mutual funds, alternative investment funds (AIFs), Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) and Infrastructure Investment Trusts (InVITs) regulated by SEBI;
 - (f) Investment Vehicles regulated by Reserve Bank of India, or Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India, or Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority.
10. According to Section 96 of the Companies Act, 2013, every company shall be required to hold its first Annual General Meeting within a period of 9 months from the date of closing of its first financial year.

The first financial year of Infotech Ltd is for the period 1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023, the first Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the company should be held on or before 31st December, 2023.

The section further provides that the Registrar may, for any special reason, extend the time within which any Annual General Meeting, other than the first Annual General Meeting, shall be held, by a period not exceeding three months.

Thus, the first AGM of Infotech Ltd. should have been held on or before 31st December, 2023. Further, in case of first AGM, the Registrar of Companies does not have the power to grant extension of any time limit.

11. According to section 103 of the Companies Act, 2013, unless the articles of the company provide for a larger number in case of a public company, five members personally present if the number of members as on the date of meeting is not more than one thousand, shall be the quorum.

In this case the quorum for holding a general meeting is 7 members to be personally present (higher of 5 or 7). For the purpose of quorum, only those members are counted who are entitled to vote on resolution proposed to be passed in the meeting.

Again, only members present in person and not by proxy are to be counted. Hence, proxies whether they are members or not will have to be excluded for the purpose of quorum.

If a company is a member of another company, it may authorize a person by resolution to act as its representative at a meeting of the latter company, then such a person shall be deemed to be a member present in person and counted for the purpose of quorum. Where two or more companies which are members of another company, appoint a single person as their representative then each such company will be counted as quorum at a meeting of the latter company.

Further, the President of India or Governor of a State, if he is a member of a company, may appoint such a person as he thinks fit, to act as his representative at any meeting of the company. A person so appointed shall be deemed to be a member of such a company and thus considered as member personally present.

In view of the above there are only three members personally present.

'A' will be included for the purpose of quorum. B & C have to be excluded for the purpose of quorum because they represent the preference shares and since the agenda being the appointment of Managing Director, their rights cannot be said to be directly affected and therefore, they shall not have voting rights. D will have two votes for the purpose of quorum as he represents two companies 'Y Ltd.' and 'Z Ltd.' E, F, G and H are not to be included as they are not members but proxies representing the members.

Thus, it can be said that the requirement of quorum has not been met and the composition shall not constitute a valid quorum for the meeting.

- 12. A proxy is an instrument in writing executed by a shareholder authorising another person to attend a meeting and to vote thereat on his behalf in his absence. The term also applies to the person so appointed and in such case a proxy is a person appointed by a member of a company, to attend the general meeting of the company and vote thereat on his behalf.

The various provisions relating to the appointment of a proxy are contained in section 105 of the Companies Act, 2013. They are as under:

1. Under section 105 (1) any member of a company entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the company shall be entitled to appoint another person as a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf.
 2. A proxy shall not have the right to speak at such meeting and shall not be entitled to vote except on a poll. This means that a proxy cannot vote on a resolution by show of hands.
 3. The Central Government may prescribe a class or classes of companies whose members shall not be entitled to appoint another person as a proxy.
 4. Under section 105 (6) the instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing; and be signed by the appointer or his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointer is a body corporate, be under its seal or be signed by an officer or an attorney duly authorised by it.
 5. Under section 105 (7) an instrument appointing a proxy, if in the form as may be prescribed, shall not be questioned on the ground that it fails to comply with any special requirements specified for such instrument by the articles of a company.
- 13. According to section 92(4) of the Companies Act, 2013, every company shall file with the Registrar a copy of the annual return, within sixty days from the date on which the annual general meeting is held or where no annual general meeting is held in any year within sixty days from the date on which the annual general meeting should have been held together with the statement specifying the reasons for not holding the annual general meeting.

Sub-section (5) of Section 92 also states that if any company fails to file its annual return under sub-section (4), before the expiry of the period specified therein, such company and its every officer who is in default shall be liable to a penalty of ten thousand rupees and in case of continuing failure, with further penalty of one hundred rupees for each day during which such failure continues, subject to a maximum of two lakh rupees in case of a company and fifty thousand rupees in case of an officer who is in default.

In the instant case, the opinion of the directors that since the AGM was cancelled, the provisions requiring the company to file annual returns within 60 days from the date of AGM would not apply, is not correct.

In the above case, the annual general meeting of Super Mart Limited should have been held within a period of six months, from the date of closing of the financial year but it did not take place. Thus, the company has contravened the provisions of section 92 of the Companies Act, 2013 for not filing the annual return and shall attract the penal provisions along with every officer of the company who is in default as specified in Section 92 (5) of the Act.

- 14. According to section 101(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, a general meeting of a company may be called by giving not less than clear twenty-one days' notice either in writing or through electronic mode in such manner as may be prescribed.

Also, it is to be noted that 21 clear days mean that the date on which notice is served and the date of meeting are excluded for sending the notice.

Further, Rule 35(6) of the Companies (Incorporation) Rules, 2014, provides that in case of delivery by post, such service shall be deemed to have been effected- in the case of a notice of a meeting, at the expiration of forty eight hours after the letter containing the same is posted.

Hence, in the given question:

- (i) A 21 days' clear notice must be given. In the given question, only 19 clear days' notice is served (after excluding 48 hours from the time of its posting and the day of sending and date of meeting). Therefore, the meeting was not validly called.
 - (ii) As explained in (i) above, notice falls short by 2 days.
 - (iii) The Companies Act, 2013 does not provide anything specific regarding the condonation of delay in giving of notice. Hence, the delay in giving the notice calling the meeting cannot be condoned.
- 15. According to section 103 of the Companies Act, 2013, unless the articles of the company provide for a larger number, the quorum for the meeting of a Public Limited Company shall be 5 members personally present, if number of members is not more than 1000.
- (i) (1) P1, P2 and P3 will be counted as three members.
 - (2) If a company is a member of another company, it may authorize a person by resolution to act as its representative at a meeting of the latter company, then such a person shall be deemed to be a member present in person and counted for the purpose of quorum. Hence, P4 and P5 representing ABC Ltd. and DEF Ltd. respectively will be counted as two members.
 - (3) Only members present in person and not by proxy are to be counted. Hence, proxies whether they are members or not will have to be excluded for the purposes of quorum. Thus, P6 and P7 shall not be counted as constituting quorum.
- In the light of the provision of the Act and the facts of the question, it can be concluded that the quorum for Annual General Meeting of KMN Cables Ltd. is 5 members personally present. Total 5 members (P1, P2, P3, P4 and P5) were present. Hence, the requirement of quorum is fulfilled.
- (ii) The section further states that, if the required quorum is not present within half an hour, the meeting shall stand adjourned for the next week at the same time and place or such other time and place as decided by the Board of Directors.

Since, P4 is an essential part for meeting the requirement of quorum and he reaches after 11:30 A.M. (i.e. after half an hour from the starting time of the meeting), the meeting will be adjourned as provided above.

- (iii) In case of lack of quorum, the meeting will be adjourned as provided in section 103 of the Companies Act, 2013.

In case of the adjourned meeting or change of day, time or place of meeting, the company shall give not less than 3 days' notice to the members either individually or by publishing an advertisement in the newspaper.

- (iv) Where quorum is not present in the adjourned meeting also within half an hour, then the members present shall form the quorum.

- 16. In this respect Rules 5 (7) and 5 (8) of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 are relevant.

Rule 5 (7) specifies that in case of companies whose securities are listed on a stock exchange in or outside India, the particulars of any pledge, charge, lien or hypothecation created by the promoters in respect of any securities of the company held by the promoter including the names of pledgee/pawnee and any revocation therein shall be entered in the register within fifteen days from such an event.

According to Rule 5 (8), if promoters of any listed company, which has formed a joint venture company with another company, have pledged or hypothecated or created charge or lien in respect of any security of the listed company in connection with such joint venture company, the particulars of such pledge, hypothecation, charge and lien shall be entered in the register members of the listed company within fifteen days from such an event.

Thus, in the above two cases, it is permitted for the listed companies to make entries relating to pledge, charge, lien or hypothecation in the registers within fifteen days from the happening of such an event.

- 17. Normally, general meetings are to be called by giving at least 21 clear days' notice as required by Section 101 (1) of the Companies Act, 2013.

As an exception, first proviso to Section 101 (1) states that a general meeting may be called after giving shorter notice than that specified in sub-section (1) of Section 101, if consent, in writing or by electronic mode, is accorded thereto—

- (i) in the case of an annual general meeting, by not less than ninety-five per cent. of the members entitled to vote thereat; and
- (ii) in the case of any other general meeting, by members of the company—
 - (a) holding, if the company has a share capital, majority in number of members entitled to vote and who represent not less than ninety-five per cent. of such part of the paid-up share capital of the company as gives a right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (b) having, if the company has no share capital, not less than ninety-five per cent. of the total voting power exercisable at that meeting.

Second proviso to Section 101 (1) clarifies that where any member of a company is entitled to vote only on some resolution or resolutions to be moved at a meeting and not on the others, those members shall be taken into account for the purposes of sub section (1) of section 101 in respect of the former resolution or resolutions and not in respect of the latter.

In view of the above provisions, Shilpkaar Constructions Limited is permitted to call the requisite general meeting by giving a shorter notice. However, the members holding at least ninety-five per cent of the paid-up share capital of the company which gives them a right to vote at the meeting must consent to the shorter notice.

Hence, the opinion of Nilesh that there shall be contravention of relevant provisions attracting penalty if a general meeting is called at shorter notice than usually required is not correct.

18. Section 118 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that every company shall prepare, sign and keep minutes of proceedings of every general meeting, including the meeting called by the requisitionists and all proceedings of meeting of any class of shareholders or creditors or Board of Directors or committee of the Board and also resolution passed by postal ballot within thirty days of the conclusion of every such meeting concerned. Minutes kept shall be evidence of the proceedings recorded in a meeting.

By virtue of Rule 25 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules 2014 read with section 118 of the Companies Act, 2013 each page of every such book shall be initialled or signed and the last page of the record of proceedings of each meeting or each report in such books shall be dated and signed by, in the case of minutes of proceedings of a general meeting, by the Chairman of the same meeting within the aforesaid period of thirty days or in the event of the death or inability of that Chairman within that period, by a director duly authorized by the Board for the purpose.

Therefore, the minutes of the meeting referred to in the case given above can be signed in the absence of Mr Venkat, by any other director also who is authorized by the Board.

- 19. Section 118 of the Companies Act, 2013 requires a company to make entries of resolutions passed by means of postal ballot in the minutes book.

Rule 25 (1) (b) (ii) of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 states that in case of every resolution passed by postal ballot, a brief report on the postal ballot conducted including the resolution proposed, the result of the voting thereon and the summary of the scrutinizer's report shall be entered in the minutes book of general meetings along with the date of such entry within thirty days from the date of passing of resolution.

Accordingly, the directors of Shikhar Cement Limited are advised to keep following points under consideration while entering resolutions passed by means of postal ballot in the minutes book of general meetings:

- (i) there should be entered a brief report on the postal ballot conducted including the resolution proposed.
- (ii) there should be entered the result of the voting made by the shareholders in respect of resolution.
- (iii) there should be entered the summary of the scrutinizer's report.
- (iv) there should be entered the date of making entry.

Further, the directors must ensure that the entries in respect of resolutions are made within thirty days from the date of passing of resolution by means of postal ballot.
